

To Eternal Victory

TO ETERNAL VICTORY

Great White
Brotherhood

VOLUME II

In the Light of knowledge is Force, and the Light that pours on the Being is Force because the Light is a power offered by the Father to each part of Life, to pour it over darkness and illuminates it.

When a dark focus is treated with Light and Power constantly, it recedes because darkness pulls back its forces before the Light. Orvonon is a Being of Power because he controls the Light in each one and he contains your memories which are Light. You must understand that each one bears a dark focus, which is why the effect of your Being has receded, because when the personality surrounds it and it is forced to recede.

The personality is like a big building without windows, or at least with very few windows, or with many windows that are sealed. It is a dark building, right? And the Light pulsing inside is not seen, right? Of course not! So are men's buildings, big buildings with many sealed and closed windows. Inside the Being is suffocating and oppressed, it cries to you. It shouts to be heard but his screams are suffocated because there is no exit, there is no opening to get out. Look at the image of the building with windows that permit the Light to flow, to let it pass intermittently, closing them sometimes and opening at others. So, if the Being is not totally expressed, at least its screams can reach outside, and somebody will hear and respond to it.

Brothers, you are now with windows that open and close and the Voice of the Being is heard, it reaches outside. You must open your windows! You must leave them open! You must master them to leave them opened so the Being may radiate its Light through them!

Understand this comparison; it will help you to have a vision of what you are and what you may be: Big structures and projectors of Light, completely Luminous Beings, where your “personality” shines in unity with your Being, shines as it radiates. Do not obstruct the passage of the Light, it Is One with the Being.

Brothers, you have to work. Some windows are now closed. They must be opened to allow the flow of Light and to reinforce the ones that are open, to allow the flow with more strength. Isn't it true that the dark focus disappears before the Light? Of course! The Light is Power. It is a glorious Power given to the Being by the Father, not to the personality, because the personality has the power of the dark forces, or better said, the dark forces only uses it because when the dark forces stop manipulating the personality, it becomes like a helpless child that you have to take care of in order to manifest the Being. This is the only way it can be done.

Jesus said: “Only Children can arrive before the Father. Be as children, come to Me”. Rediscover in those words all the Light that it contains. Only as children of Light may you manifest the Father and reach Him.

I cover you with the Light of My Being because you are children trapped by the dark forces. My Being covers you with its Light so that the parts which you are may manifest and be glorified in your surrender in devotion.

The Light of the One covers you. The surrender in devotion of my Being flows gloriously over you. I Love you as the children you are. I Love you. KutHuMi awaits you to pour Light on each one. I Am Your Servant, a Servant of the Light, KutHuMi.

The wait is over. The Light is recreated in your Surrender in devotion; accept it. Liberate yourselves in It.

The Light of the One Being awaits you, the All Light.

I LOVE YOU
KUTHUMI

The Being is recreated in each action and when it flows without obstacles, it is glorified in each surrender in devotion.

The Being recreates itself in each surrender in devotion. It is a servant of the Creator, so he recreates himself. The One is re-created in the surrender in devotion of the Being.

The Light of the One covers you and is recreated with this surrender in devotion. Receive me as the Light that comes from Him to each Being on Earth. To you who specifically manifest the desire to radiate the Being and recreate the Light in each action, I Am Lanto, a Servant. This surrender in devotion is my pleasure. It is Beautiful. It is the long-awaited opportunity and now I can enjoy it because it is very beautiful.

My surrender in devotion is sincere it flows from the Being, from My Being. I am one more with you in the desire that you master yourselves, to Liberate yourselves, to project yourselves over earth as the Light of the One, as His Being.

I Am at your Service. I am your Brother and it is pleasant to perceive the desire of each Being; the desire to express yourselves, to manifest yourselves. Your personalities now somewhat obstruct that surrender in devotion, but your Beings will be poured outside in all their glorious Light, and what is not really Light will be absorbed by the Light of your Being. It has to be so. It will be so. Only the Light Will Be.

The personality obstructs the surrender in devotion because it is not “controlled” by a single “I”. There are many “I’s”. There are so many that it is almost impossible to enumerate them all. Now, you have to take into consideration that the parts that wish to manifest the Light are few but in the measure, that you work, you will be mastering and fortifying them.

The Light consciously poured will cause the dark focus to disappear, to be absorbed by it. Patience is a virtue that you must cultivate it because only with patience will you be able to master your parts. Impatience does not take you anywhere, only to disorder in what you do, because when the Light is not sustained with patience at the point where it has to be poured, it does nothing. It has to be sustained, kept acting constantly, because if you pour it today but tomorrow you are tired or upset, what did you do? Nothing! Only perverted the Light because it did not complete its mission. It must be a constant effort, sustained with patience, with Love, with lots of Love, time and again, time and again.

The Light is Power, but a passive power, not aggressive; therefore, with patience, with Love, that Power will prevail. It is not destructive. You do not have to be destructive, on the contrary, you have to achieve using all patience and love that your Being has accumulated. Do it so, with Patience and Love that your Being now has for what it has to overcome in your personalities. Patience is the Science of Peace. achieve it. It is Beautiful and so you will master each dark focus.

The Light of the Being, the All Being, covers you. Bathe yourselves in It and pour it with the Science of Peace on the dark focus. Recreate yourselves in this action. It is a Beautiful and Glorious Action because the Being needs to express itself to be manifested, to be recreated.

I Am Lanto, your Servant. Patience is a Science, so achieve it patiently. In full consciousness pour the Light of your Being over what you wish to achieve, time and time again, constantly.

I leave you with the Light of My Being bathing you with the Patience that is in it. Receive it. Accept it. I cover you in My Being.

LANTO
A BROTHER AT YOUR UNCONDITIONAL SERVICE

•III•

I Am Cassiopeia, Elohim Cassiopeia, comes to you, bringing you the Glorious Light from the Being of the One. I deposit it in your Being to be re-created in your action. So Be It.

I Am Cassiopeia. I pour the Light of the One over each part of Life that wants to manifest Its Illuminated Presence.

I Am Cassiopeia. The One Light that pulsates in My Being, I cause it to reach you.

Brothers, the night that was covering your Beings is receding. Already the Sun of Your Beings lazily shows its face and little by little it pours Its Light over the bodies in which it was imprisoned for eons of time. In the degree that it rises, its Light is spread, and all confined spaces are illuminated. It is still very dark but the Being, your Beings in Loving surrender in devotion, are eager to pour the Light over each cell in the measure that your personalities permit the Manifestation of the Divine Light.

I Am Cassiopeia, a Brother, one more in your effort, one more Light. Each feeling of your Beings has reached the One, but they were not clear. Only until it became clear was it identified with the formless hush of your voices. In that manner, as one voice after the other was separated from the masses, was the petition heard. Then the Light of your Beings, which has been suffocated in darkness, was fortified and you were given this opportunity. Now your voices are clearer. They do not belong to the masses. They are raised above them, and they clearly reach the Being, the All Being. Here we see that the Light poured over your Beings has been taken advantage of to the maximum. Each petition was heard and answered. Each effort was duplicated and then again, and the Being shows signs of raising its face from the filth. It has to be a Luminous departure, a Beautiful Manifestation, because in the measure that you persist in this Manifestation, the darkness that surrounds you will be swept away. It will reach its full Glory, in his full Height, manifesting the Light of the One in all its splendour.

I Am Cassiopeia, the Illuminated presence of the One. He pours in Me His Light and I pulse it towards your Beings, to dress each one with Light. The Marvellous Knowledge of the Being will be manifested in each part of Life through your Presences. It is now a uniform mass trying to come out of the darkness. You are an amorphous body, but the light of your Beings is starting to illuminate you, and the Will of the One, when manifested in each, will fortify the wish of becoming a solid body free of all garbage. So, what now moves as a formless mass must change because your Beings have now been manifested in Unity. You must come out of your darkness and raise yourself to your feet; only in this manner will your Beings be able to manifest the Glorious Light of the One. Your voices have already been separated from the loud discordant sound of humanity. Your Beings are covered as a single entity but are yet stumbling in that dark place. You must come out of there. You must come out of that dark mass. You must manifest the Father.

The Will of the One has been poured on your Beings and that Will, united with the conscious efforts of your personalities, makes possible this change because in each small conscious effort, in each effort of the Being, your Body is separated from the mass and is cleaned. My body covers you with the Light. It reaches each one to enliven the Flame of the Being. I pour Light over your united body to illuminate the path for you to come out of that darkness.

Brothers, the Glorious Light of the Being will be manifested in you, in the Unity that will shelter you. So, you will have to express the Father in Unity of the Being. The “motive force” of your Beings comes from that unified desire. Feed yourselves with it. You are not any longer separated identities. You are now an amorphous Body, but you will raise yourselves Gloriously, Magnificently, and the light of the One will be, it will be Manifested.

I Am Cassiopeia, the Illuminated Presence of the Being reaching each of your Beings and pouring over you that you may take steps to come out of the darkness.

I Am Cassiopeia. Receive me in the surrender in devotion to the One Light, in a Glorious Surrender in devotion. There My Being covers you and gives you Life. In the Glorious Knowledge of the Being I feed you. I Have decided to spread My Light, My Being, over each one and over the whole, so that in you, in each cell of your bodies of your Being, you will drink from the Illuminated presence of the Being, the All Being.

I Am Cassiopeia, a Brother. The One Light awaits your Glorious Unity to pour over it the Light of His Being.

I Am Cassiopeia. I am with you, I am in each of your efforts, I add My vote of confidence so that you may be able to achieve the commended task successfully.

The Light of the One covers you in Its Glorious Sublimity. Drink the essence from It that the Father disposes for each of you. Drink from It. It is the Food for the Being; it Is the Living Light of the Being. In surrender in devotion to your Service I remain pouring on your Beings the Glorious Light of the Being. Receive it and enliven each cell with Its Light.

I Am Cassiopeia, A Brother in the Light of the Being, Elohim Cassiopeia, the Light of the Being, the All Being.

So Be It!

·IV·

The music emitted by the Elementals on Earth is now purer and more beautiful. It is a proof that the Light of the One covers earth and is scattered in soft sounds, reaching each being that requests it.

I come from the All Being. I carry His Light. I Am one more element in his Glorious Whole, in His Glorious Unity.

All Life is pleased and joyfully submits to the wave of Light that bathes earth. It is an enlivening action, needed because the garbage that covers you suffocates the Being of each element.

The Knowledge of the Being reached you through Cassiopeia in a beautiful gesture of Love. My surrender in devotion is unconditional to each Life and I also bring the Wise Essence of the Being. It is re-created in each surrender in devotion and especially in this one because He Sees that you have started to come out of the masses through your own efforts. You are up on your feet, still confused, but you can now sustain yourselves. Your Beings have already raised their heads lifting them out of the pestilent darkness. The hand once offered insecurely, now strongly grasps the Hand of the One that was waiting for it.

I come from the Worlds of Light and I bring with Me the Flavour of the Glorious Knowledge of the All Being. This action is wonderful because the Being of each one is enlivened with this gift. Receive it. It is My contribution to your work, to your surrender in devotion in manifesting the Light of the All Being. I come from where the Light is Beautiful, Perfect, and on seeing you covered with the pestilent garbage that suffocates you My Being feels hurt. It is an ugly sight, repulsive, and I lovingly pour Light over each, over the mass that is separated, over the amorphous viscosity of human creation.

I come from the World of Light where Love recreates itself in each Manifestation, from where Perfection is Glorious. It Is Truly Beautiful. Here the spectrum of your Beings cries to come out of the nauseous jail that is within you. Brothers, get them out of there, your Beings have been there for Light Eons and they are suffocating because of the stench. Brothers, it is a gross spectacle. The Light of the Being is Beautiful, and it gives us nausea to see the amorphous mass that agitates itself desperately to escape, to insulate itself from all that putrid matter in your bodies.

Brothers, the vision that I show you is for your personalities to have a little Light on the real situation of your Beings. Oh! unconscious personalities, you united yourselves to satisfy your ignoble desires and you have taken your Being to the filthiest places that humanity has been able to create. React!

Brothers, because even if the fight of your Beings is titanic, the personality still dreams of being able to satisfy its wishes, its carnal wishes. Oh, brothers! the darkness of your world holds your personalities asleep and it “candidly” wallows in the pestilent faeces of the darkness.

Humanity as a whole is amorphous. I say as a whole because it is a mixture. It is something that does not allow definition. It has reached the limit of its Manifestation. Its presence on Earth is no longer tolerable. Its attitude is execrable with its vain attitude.

Those wanting to come out of that mass can do so by accepting the Force that the All Being offers you. Do it, because the worlds that you live in are horrible.

Brothers, large is the Love of the One that has allowed Me to reach you. For that Love I dispose Myself to Serve you, for the Love of your Beings, for the Love of the Divine Spark, for Love of the Light, for Love of that crying supplicant Being, for Love to the All Being. For that reason, I dispose Myself to Serve you because I could say that there is no “Life” on Earth, there is no Light, everything is darkness, death. Brothers, understand that you give Life; with your desires of reaching the One, you give yourself Life. The desire that your Beings have manifested, that has kept you alive, the desire that has given force to your Beings is what made possible that the Father has given you the opportunity that you now have.

Your Beings were isolated cells with each one calling for help. Much Light has been outpoured to isolate you, to find you, to inject you with more Light, to enliven the light of the One in you. They were your last exclamations in requesting help, your Last breath. The Love of the One made possible for you to be given more strength and taken to the point where you now gather, where you now fight to extract yourselves from the filthy mass that imprisons your Beings.

Brothers, understand the titanic work done by your Beings. This has allowed the Father to submit himself lovingly to each effort realized, to each step taken. That is why I Am here, pouring from My Being the Loving Light of the One. For the Love to your Beings, for Love to your Light, to them I surrender, I surrender My Being. Accept it. I fill you with Love, receive it. And to the disgusting personalities wallowing in their dark worlds, make up your minds. Get ready to open the doors of the jail in which your Being is suffocating. Do it! The revival of Life in each Being depends on you.

I Am Soo Shee. I have reached you from the Worlds of Light. I want to take you to those Worlds little by little, if you will allow me. Oh, personalities! I will steadily pour over each of you the essence of the Luminous Worlds so that you can give the Being the Freedom that it desires so badly.

These are your Worlds, you belong there. Liberate the Being in each conscious act, in each desire for it. Liberate it and your worlds will be filled with Light.

I am Lady Soo Shee, a Sister that Lovingly submits herself to your Service. A Sister that awaits to see you Free in the Glorious Light of the Being. So Be It.

Lady Soo Shee, A Sister, for the Loving Surrender in devotion of the Being, the All Being, I Leave MY Being at your Service.

LADY SOO SHEE

The Being is raised up to the Central Nucleus the moment the personality gives up every personal desire in favour of the Manifestation of the Being. In this way he raises himself, reaching the heights of the Being, the All Being. In this way his “Wings of Light” soar across infinite space and are “burned” in the Light of the One, in his Blazing Light, to reappear as the Glorious, Immortal Phoenix.

Sons of the One, I cause the Light to reach your Beings constantly. I also send to your personality that has played at coaxing the Being to reach out, to remove the covering that was put over it and the obscure mass that surrounds you. I come to you from the Central Nucleus where everything is Light, where Beauty Is Found. I come from there, and in gravitating over your Being I deposit in it the Light Essence of the Being. I bring My Light to your personality to satisfy your vain curiosity to know, the presumptuous curiosity of wanting, the pestilent curiosity of possessing.

Who do you want to possess? The Being? Oh! Presumptuous jailer, you will never be able to possess Him because He is Free in the Glorious Being that gave him Life. His Life Is His, Only His: then, what are you going to possess? Nothing! Do not you see that you are the one who is possessed? The one imprisoned? That you do not have Life? The Being projects itself in you and gives you Life. You alone are as nothing. You are like a breath that is exhaled and that is it! It disappears! You only have the sensation of emptiness, so you are. And the damage you have caused because of your presumptuous vanity! Do not you really see that the dark force is you, jailer? Do not you see? Wake up! You are the one who is asleep! You are the one being suffocated! You are the one needing Light! It is you, vain personality! Accept the force of your Being and raise yourselves! Take off the chains that restrict you! Take off those chains! React! Your Being clamours for you to Liberate yourself and allow It to express itself in you, to manifest Itself through you.

Oh, vain personality, balance the forces that want you Free with the ones that have you trapped. Complete this balance because only in this way will you see the miasma that surrounds you! Recognize, Oh, personality! that you are nothing. The dark forces have made you believe that you are powerful. What a lie. It's all false! A dirty trick on you for not allowing the Being to express through you! It does have Power! It does have Life! Through It and in conscious surrender in devotion you will be able to reach the Light because It is the channel to the Being, the All Being, and only wants to pour Its Light over you. Oh, vain personality, you are the one that needs help.

Brothers, the hardness of My Words are directed at you so that you take into consideration once and for all that only consciousness is and is to be found in the Being, then is projected in surrender in devotion to each Being. The Being in turn projects it to the personality but here the self-sufficiency that the dark force has insufflated in it is enough to make it repel that Light. There are parts in you that clamour for It and it is there that you must work, because you must reinforce those parts that have recognized the Being and have put themselves to its Service.

Brothers, Be Conscious of the Light that is poured on you and of the Light that each one pours. Fill with Light those decided parts. Fortify yourselves there, and little by little, lovingly expand on those that still persist in manifesting darkness. The amorphous mass that you now form is constituted by those parts, but they have great force of resistance. So, fortify those parts with each conscious act, with your conscious surrender in devotion, and once fortified, work on the dark side that keeps you in the garbage can!

I Am a Brother that sees the efforts that you realize and understands the Love that your Beings have for each part of Life that fights for the Light. There Brothers, in that Being I Am supporting your effort and I will support each conscious effort. Count with My Help from the Worlds of Light. From the Archetypal Worlds of Light, I pulse the Light of the Being, of the All Being.

I Am Confucius, a Brother in the Light. A Brother, I Am at your Service.

YOUR BROTHER, CONFUCIUS

From the Silence of the Ages where the Being is sheltered and grows, from the Voice of Silence, from the Central Nucleus where Everything Is, the Presence of the One comes and is manifested on earth. His Presence reaches each Manifestation in each expression of Light. The always present Constance presents Him, making it possible for the Light to shine Beautiful and Perfect over the worlds etheric planes.

Brothers, receive Me with the Love that your Beings have stored and pour it over other Beings. Receive Me as the Light of the One. I Am Constance, a part of the All Being, one more point in His Manifestation.

Brothers, My surrender in devotion reaches you as a surrender in devotion to Life, as a surrender in devotion to the Glorious Light of the All Being. I Am thanking you for allowing Me to reach your worlds. From His Source I bring His Light to each corner of earth, to each part of Himself, and to each one I give His Perfect Presence Manifesting in the Light. The Constant surrender in devotion of His Being has made possible for your Beings to maintain Hope lit on your altars. It has always been deposited there for Light eons. The Glorious Presence of the Father–Mother is deposited there. It is given to you and feeds your Beings.

Brothers, it is not often finding beings decided to work for a cause apparently unknown to each one, but if you seek your Origin in the Principle of Life, you will realize you have been fed with a constant Light because you come from a Pure and Beautiful Source that has requested, and still requests, a redemption for each part of Life trapped here on Earth. The Constancy that your beings have manifested time and again has taken you away from the mass and put you on a Path of Light. You have fallen and raised yourselves again and again, but now not falling back. You have always sustained what your Beings have held as a Goal: to Manifest the Light of the One, to give yourselves in His Presence.

Brothers, all your paths have been admirable because under difficult conditions each one has come out to the Light, each one has found the Guiding Light that the Father has given as your guide.

Brothers, the Light poured over your Beings has not been in vain, energizing you in each desire, in each effort. You have been revitalized from the fall and helped again and again. The constancy that the All Being planted has allowed the Light to be manifested; has made possible that after fall after fall you were able to continue anyway. Today, now reunited, you wait for the rest of the cells to arrive, already identified and united to surrender yourselves to work as Only One for the One Light.

Brothers, I Am Constance. The Light of the All Being covers you through My Being with His Marvellous Constance. I cause His Light to flow and I pulsate it to each one, so that each time you let the Light of the Being flow, you manifest it.

Brothers, the Light is Beautiful and your Beings, thirsting for It, await from you the total surrender in devotion for its Manifestation.

Brothers, the position that you maintain now has been obtained with long and constant effort, a constant surrender in devotion by your Beings for each one to reach his correct position. You are there now. You have reached it. Now is the time for your personalities to give way to the Being, to allow it to flow with the Light of the All Being.

Brothers, the effort realized is beautiful; so, in acknowledgment of all the effort realized by your Beings, give yourselves to Him and live His surrender in devotion, His Glorious Surrender in devotion, because until now He is the one who has made the effort, and now you have to consciously repolarize your actions and allow Him to flow in each conscious act, in each conscious surrender in devotion.

Brothers, I give My Being to each one of you as part of the All Being that I Am. I pulsate to each one from His Nucleus. Brothers, now that you are conscious of Me, you can now take the Light from My Being and bathing yourselves in It, give yourselves without reserve to the All Light Presence.

Brothers, this surrender in devotion is Beautiful. Because of it my Being recreates itself in this surrender in devotion and enlivens the Flame of the Being. Receive it. I will pour from the One Source the amount necessary for you to continue in constant surrender in devotion.

I Am Constance and I place the Light of My Being on your Altars so by reaching each cell of your vehicles, it fills itself in the surrender in devotion of each one.

I Am Constance, one more part of the Being, one more part.

Brothers, I await you with each new desire of the Being to reach it.

I send you My Light in Constant Surrender in devotion.

I Am Constance, one more in the Being, In the All Being.

CONSTANCE

·VII·

This is Jophiel, Archangel Jophiel. The Light is recreated with the surrender in devotion of each Being over earth. I come from the One, bringing the Light of His Being. Receive it. In Holy Blessing I deposit it over your Beings; I bathe you in It.

Brothers, the Light of the One, Glorious and Beautiful, calls to you so in a Divine and Unconditional surrender in devotion you will fill yourselves with Its Manifestation in each surrender in devotion.

Brothers, you must not forget that each of you has reached the point where you are now with a defined purpose of your Beings, and that you must feed that purpose in order to grow and give fruit to those that have need of it.

Brothers, remember, you are Laborers of the Lord. You have to put your hand on that great field of work, in effort after effort to deposit the Living Light of the Being, His Light Seed on Earth.

Remember brothers, from the field of work you have been selected as “good seeds” and have been planted in fertile ground, therefore you must offer your fruits to those who come looking for the Light that you have.

Brothers, remember that all conscious effort is a Seed of Light spread over earth as you work. So being conscious of this, make the effort and place yourselves in your work where your surrender in devotion is to be made.

Brothers, your “Light seeds” are brought by the Father to this dark Earth where they will germinate in her womb, where they will give Light, where their fruit will feed with Divine Wisdom those who thirst and call for the Light.

Brothers, Africa clamours for her “Seeds of Light”. Africa clamours knowing each conscious effort is a seed planted in her womb. It is a seed that germinates. This is your field of work. Africa rejoices in you for each conscious surrender in devotion to that continent because, remember, as it is inside, so it is outside also and vice versa.

So, work brothers, work. Each small effort consciously realized is applied to those parts that clamour for the Light. It does not matter if it is small. The important thing is that it be conscious and constantly directed towards Africa.

Brothers, each little bit of Light, each “grain of sand” will construct with Love all that you want to do. So, do it with the joyful disposition of Serving in a Loving surrender in devotion to this Beautiful Cause.

Brothers, I Am Jophiel, I will pour the Light of My Being on each effort consciously realized.

Brothers, alert your forces and be ready. It is time to make ready your luminous parts and take them as the Light to each dark part.

Brothers, for all the beautiful Light of your Beings, I place
Myself in devoted surrender to them.

*Jophiel, the Archangel of Illumination.
I Am at your Service.*

JOPHIEL

·VIII·

The Voice of the Being reaches each one by bearing the gifts of HIS Being. I make this possible because I know that you are now willing to fulfil the Will of the One. So Be It.

Brothers, from the Glorious Light of the All Being, I reach you carrying the Flame of Knowledge, the Glorious Presence of Knowledge that is present in My Being.

I Am Minerva. Divine Wisdom establishes Its Goals in Me. I comply in honour of the Will of the One.

Brothers, the Light of the Being, Pure and Beautiful, is poured on you as a sign of Love, as a sign of surrender in devotion. You should not sustain yourselves in any rigid position for any length of time because personalities tend to create habits that later dulls your work. Nevertheless, to take the personality from unconscious acts to conscious activity is very difficult for it, because it is used to operate mechanically. When a conscious act is attempted the personality tries to restructure it within its habit-forming mechanism and cannot. This is why we say to you that only in conscious acts the personalities dulling ability cannot oppose your wish and you will be able to achieve your work with your personalities attention, because in conscious acts the Will of the One is Manifested.

Brothers, understand that for centuries the Being has been trapped in the dark world of habit, in the mechanical action of the personality. Now, by the Law of Opposites, priority must be given only to conscious action, in talking, in thinking, and walking in a Conscious Life. Now the Being must be given its way and only by applying your consciousness to each thing will you be able to achieve it.

Brothers, may the Light be in each one. Receive the Illuminated Presence of the All Being is in these words.

The centuries have enclosed your Beings in mechanical processes, in ubiquity, and your personalities have grown used to it. But now is the time for each one to turn your personalities and join in the conscious action of the Being, the All Being.

Brothers, according to the Cosmic Law of Volume, the bigger the volume, the bigger the space. When space is contacted, the volume is contacted, and in that concentrated space is your Being; your personalities have concentrated them there. Now is the time for you to contact the space of your personalities, and in the ubiquity of the Being, to manifest the Being, the All Being. Let that “little” being of you come out to magnify himself in expression.

The Light of the One will be and in the comprehension of your Beings, I leave you this Light pulsating for each part of your personalities so that you contact yourselves consciously in the action of expressing the Being, of channelling the All Being.

Brothers, I Am Minerva a very small part of that Great Nucleus of Light, and My Service is to pour the Illuminated Presence of the One on all Life. I fulfil this function in you. I reach your personalities with the desire that you conduct yourselves towards the truth of the Being and to dispose yourselves as channels for this Great Being, the All Being.

Brothers, I Am Minerva. I leave you with this Glorious Light poured on your Beings. Permit them to express themselves so that each cell of your vehicles drinks from Its Light and can manifest the Light Essence of the Being.

So Be It!

*MINERVA COVERS YOU WITH HER LIGHT
AMEN*