NEWS FROM THE ARTS CENTER

- We are looking for a Suzuki lesson teacher. If interested, please contact the Arts Center today – 252-527-2517.
- Congratulations to Evelyn Retiz, from Kinston, North Carolina. She is the November Visitor of the Month. Her name was drawn for a $25 gift certificate from the Arts Center.
- The Arts Center is an excellent venue for all your rental needs. Whether for a family reunion or wedding reception, corporate meeting or birthday party, consider the Community Council for the Arts. We offer competitive pricing and many rental services are available. Give us a call today and book your event – 252-527-2517.
- Join us in helping to sustain the Arts Council for the future by making a contribution to the 50th Anniversary Campaign. The Council is solely dependent on annual memberships, facility rentals, fundraisers, and modest local government grants. Your gift will make a significant and lasting impact on the life of the arts in our community for many years to come. For more information on how you might help, please call the Arts Center, 252-527-2517, or email Sandy Landis, Executive Director, slandis@kinstoncca.com.
- Thank you to Mr. & Mrs. Bert Saville and Highland TV and Appliance for donating a new refrigerator for the Arts Center.
- We wish staff member, Jill Croom, our very best wishes in her new job working with behavioral management in the schools at Camp Lejeune. Jill joined our staff in March of this year as our part-time Programs Director. She was instrumental in working with us on numerous events and program building, particularly in the planning and implementation of children's art at the Festival on the Neuse "Artsfest", our summer art camps, and the upcoming Manufacturer's Day for middle and high school students. She approached all of these and her other responsibilities with a light-hearted spirited, emphasis on quality, and desire to make offerings engaging to all. We will miss her greatly.

COMMUNITY NEWS & EVENTS

Kinston High School Fine Arts Department and Cultural Awareness Committee presents Langston Hughes' "Black Nativity". Directed by Clay

Raines, "Black Nativity" is the joyous account of an historic event that occurred 2,000 years ago. It's a celebration that tells the original story of the Nativity in scripture, verse, music and dance.

Based on the Gospel of St. Luke, combined with the poetry of Langston Hughes, this song-play touches a special chord in the hearts of all.

This legendary Christmas event, is without a doubt a theatrical wonderment. A joyous company of over 80 singers, actors, dancers and musicians delivers its powerful message of joy, hope, victory and liberation. Show dates are December 9 and 10, beginning at 7:30 PM at the Kinston High School Performing Arts Center. Tickets are $8 in advance and $10 at the door. Proceeds will benefit Community Health Interventions and Sickle Cell Agency, Inc.

This production will feature Ray Shell. Ray is an African-American film, TV and stage actor, as well as an author, director and producer. He is famous for creating the roles of Nomax in Five Guys Named Moe and Rusty in Starlight Express.

For more information or to purchase tickets, call Clay Raines at 252-527-8067.
