

Tampa Bay Student Film Contest

The Spring Break Challenge— everyone has the same prompt; what will you do to stand out?

THE PROMPT

2017-2018

Title

Quality Control

Prop (Must be included somewhere in the film)

Potato Chips (any brand)

Dialogue (You must use at least 5 of the following lines in your film)

One isn't enough.

Who said that?

You need a hug or something.

This one makes noises!

What if they actually lost it?

Guess I'm being recorded again.

This makes me emotional.

I want to see.

Come on, just tell me.

High five!

Additional Info: There is no limit to the number of students who can participate in the creation of the film. Film length should not exceed 7 minutes and should adhere to all copyright guidelines. Material should be PG13. Completed films should be submitted to TBSFC using the submission guidelines outlined on the contest tab of TBStudentFilm.com. All films are due by the TBSFC March 29 deadline. Each school can submit up to two entries. For more information visit TBStudentFilm.com.
