

2018 APPLICATION

HIGH SCHOOL PROGRAMS

Dear Applicant,

Once you have decided to apply to one of our programs, it's necessary to complete several steps. The first step is to call to inform us that you are applying and also to check on space availability. By doing this, we are alerted to your serious interest and can initiate the interview process and expect your essays and reference letters.

There are four pieces to the application process:

1. Application and deposit ($800): Send us the completed application and deposit.
NEW: You can now do this online!
2. Two reference letters: Give one of the reference letter requests to your language teacher (unless a beginner; then choose another teacher) and the second to the academic head of your high school or your guidance person.
3. Your two essays: Please, please be candid in writing these.
4. The interview: This can take place before, during, or after you complete the application; in person or on the phone. If we haven't interviewed you when we receive the application, we will call you or feel free to call us.

Why do we ask for all this? Well, perhaps more importantly than helping us make an acceptance decision, the two essays and reference letters are significant pieces of getting to know you—your strengths and weakness. If you are accepted, we along with our family placers will use the information in these four documents (along with a lot of other information we get from you in the Spring) to help find you the best possible family.

The interview is an essential part for each of us, and for your parents, in getting to know one another. Not only is it an opportunity for you to tell us what your goals and strengths are, but we can tell you honestly who we are and what you can expect. And always remember that we want you to be selecting us too - it's a match that we are after and not a one-way street.

Once we have all the parts of the application, and assuming we have met you in person or had the chance to talk to you in some detail on the phone, we will contact you with our decision based on the following schedule:

Material received by: November 30—notification by December 15th;
December 31—notification by January 15th;
Thereafter notification within 15 days of the month following receipt of all materials

If all of your material is not in by the month end, we will either make a preliminary evaluation or roll your application over to the next month, at our discretion. Remember, we are not necessarily looking for "A" students, but rather motivated students who have displayed or whom we can anticipate having a willingness and maturity to be absorbed into a foreign culture, its language, and a new group of students and staff.

If you have any questions, please call us anytime, or look us up on the web at our new address, www.rassias.com.

We look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Bill, Helene, Nando and Alejo

2018 Price (including airfare):
$8,200

Note: All prices are subject to currency fluctuations.

WHAT'S INCLUDED IN OUR PRICES

Our prices include almost everything that is a normal program expenditure-admissions, food, lodging, transportation, educational materials, plus round trip air fare from the U.S. (on normally scheduled flights, not charters!). Items of a personal nature (e.g. candy, beverages over the norm, gifts) are not included.

Note also that when you are poking around town with your host family you might offer to chip in for a coffee, movie, etc. The financial impact of these personal expenditures costs anywhere from $100 to $200 per week.

AIRFARES

The airfares included in our prices are for round-trip flights from the United States or Canada to and from our destination cities. Most students prefer to fly over with their group and one of our staff members, but other arrangements can be made. Airfares are subject to change without notice... by the airlines, not by us!

Students taking their own flights are met in Aries at no additional cost if they arrive or depart on their group's arrival/ departure date. If you are arriving or departing on another date or at another airport, we can usually arrange to meet you or take you to the airport, but there is a charge for transportation, time and any expenses incurred. If you do book your own flights, there is a reduction of $1,000 for round-trip flights in the price shown.

Please let us know your plans early so we can best meet all our needs.

TO OUR NON-US STUDENTS

We will always make appropriate currency adjustments. Airfare ($1,000) should be deducted from those prices if you plan to fly directly. Please call us for details.
