Monday - "I can never escape from your Spirit! I can never get away from your presence!" Psalm 139:7

Dear Heavenly Father, help my children to always know that they can never escape your Spirit or get away from your presence.

Tuesday - "The Lord isn't really slow about his promise, as some people think. No, he is being patient for our sake. He does not want anyone to be destroyed, but wants everyone to repent." 2 Peter 3:9

Dear Heavenly Father, thank you for your patience with my children for their sake. May they come to know you fully and deeply.

Wednesday - "But you offer forgiveness, that we might learn to fear you." Psalm 130:4

Dear Heavenly Father, may my children know that you are a tenderhearted, forgiving and loving Father.

Thursday - "Anyone who harms you harms my most precious possession." Zechariah 2:8

Dear Heavenly Father, not only are my children my most precious possession, but they are your most precious possession as well. May they come to know the reality of your love for them.

Friday - "This High Priest of ours understands our weaknesses, for he faced all of the same testings we do, yet he did not sin. So let us come boldly to the throne of our gracious God. There we will receive his mercy, and we will find grace to help us when we need it most." Hebrews 4:15-16

Dear Heavenly Father, may my children always know that you are always available to them and that no matter what they may be going through you are always gracious and merciful.
