Eucharist

Center of my life and soul

Piece of Bread, drops of blood

My body, just a little achy

Attempting to awaken

Yes, by standards of many (and sometimes my self)

There are many things to criticize

Much that lacks "father" wonderful

And yet

I am:

loving, joyful, kind gentle, generous, somewhat self-controlled peaceful, patient and faithful

If I try to defend my flaws and being less than perfect

I gloss over my limitations which are sometimes my greatest strengths

You see, all of us have temptations, struggles and growing edges

We love things and people that others abhor or avoid

That is just the way it is

But ALL are welcome, no exceptions

The only ones excluded from the table, are those who excuse themselves or exclude others

My mission apostolic and sometimes impossible:

Bring them home

the isolated, the alone, the lost, the lonely, the wounded

I love my mission and the God who sends me

Soulitude revisited

Ron Moses +

We need to form a Photo Ministry to make sure that pictures are taken at all our events throughout the year. Photos will be used in the bulletin and on our website. #### Notes to Our Ministry Leaders

(We do it to serve the Lord)

Our ministries are so important to serving the needs of our parishioners. You, who have been selected to lead these ministries, have earned the trust and respect of your peers. Your talents and wisdom in these matters have been recognized. Jesus teaches us to serve all others. That should be what drives us to do the best job we can. As leaders, we must realize the value and importance of each and every member of our ministry. They all are volunteers who ask nothing in return other than the opportunity to serve our Lord. They are your team. Keep them informed and up-to-date on what your ministry is doing and what its goals are. When people feel they are important and appreciated, they try even harder. If you are fortunate enough to have a vice-chair or co-chair, remember that they should be involved in everything you are doing. If, for some reason, you should be unable to lead your ministry (sickness, vacation, etc.), they will be ready to take your place and get the job done. Remember to love and respect all the volunteers you have helping to make your ministry a success.

The Respect Life Committee invites the Parishioners of St John's Evangelist Parish to participate in the 40 Days for Life campaign. (From the cradle to the grave)

40 Days for Life Spiritual Bouquet cards will be given out Oct. 15th as parishioners enter the church before Holy Mass. Read the card, make your commitment and PLEASE return the card as you are leaving Mass. 40 Days for Life is a focused pro-life campaign with a vision to access God's power through prayer, fasting and peaceful vigil to end abortion.

Ask yourself, "How can I help?"

Our Bible/Catholic Study is on Wednesday with over 20 people in attendance and will continue every Wednesday and it is not too late to join us. All are welcome. This is based on classes that I gave in Iraq. It will hopefully challenge each of us to put out into deep water and lower our nets.
