We urgently need Altar Servers here at St John the Evangelist for both Saturday and Sunday Masses. The training is easy and it is not difficult to learn. It is a great way to continue serving our Lord. I will be happy to work with you and place you with a Master Server until you feel comfortable to serve by yourself. Adults welcome also. Call or see Bud Surratt 386-684-6906. God Bless, Bud Surratt

July 8, 2018 - Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Focusing the Gospel

Mark 6:1-6

"Mark begins a new theme in his gospel with today's reading that will be central to his story of Jesus: the obtuseness of people to the power and authority of Jesus. The people of Jesus' own hometown reject his message. They consider Jesus too much "one of them" to be taken seriously. They are too obsessed with superficialities—occupation, ancestry, origins—to realize the presence of God in their midst and to allow themselves to be affected by that presence.

Jesus redefines the meaning of authority as understood by his kinfolk: Jesus' authority is not derived from his ability to manipulate the fears, suspicions, apathy, or ignorance of those around him but from the spirit of mercy, justice, and compassion that he is able to call forth from them. The authority his hearers see in Jesus is rooted in wisdom that comes from experience and a lived commitment to act justly and selflessly."

Enfocando el Evangelio

Marcos 6: 1-6

"Marcos comienza un nuevo tema con el evangelio de hoy que será central en la historia de Jesús: la actitud de las personas contra el poder y la autoridad de Jesús. La gente de la ciudad natal de Jesús rechaza su mensaje. Consideran a Jesús es muy poco para ser tomado en serio. Está demasiado obsesionados con las superficialidades para darse cuenta de la presencia de Dios en medio de ellos y para dejarse afectar por esa presencia.

Jesús redefine el significado de la autoridad tal como la entiende su familia: la autoridad de Jesús no se deriva de la capacidad de manipular los miedos y la ignorancia de quienes lo rodean, sino del espíritu de misericordia, justicia y compasión que él es capaz de sentir por ellos. La autoridad que sus oyentes ven en Jesús está enraizada en la sabiduría que proviene de la experiencia y un compromiso vivido para actuar justa y desinteresadamente."

A Message from Pope Francis: Fear Sin, Not Death

by Hannah Brockhaus

Vatican City, Jul 1, 2018 / 05:40 am (CNA/EWTN News).- Catholics have no reason to fear death, because Christ the Lord has power over death; instead, they should fear sin, which hardens and kills the soul, Pope Francis said Sunday. "Jesus is the Lord, and before Him physical death is like sleep: there is no reason to despair. A different [thing] is the death to be afraid of: that of the heart hardened by evil! Of that yes, we must be afraid!" the pope said July 1. "It is the death of the heart." "Jesus is the Lord, and before Him physical death is like sleep: there is no reason to despair. A different [thing] is the death to be afraid of: that of the heart hardened by evil! Of that yes, we must be afraid!" the pope said July 1. "It is the death of the heart." . . . . .

Citizenship Party for Father Pablo
