"We are a welcoming and embracing community centered on Jesus in the Eucharist."

Sept. 16, 2018 - Twenty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Focusing the Gospel – Mark 8:27-35

"In today's gospel, Peter is a model of vacillating faith—a model that typifies our own reaction to the call to discipleship.

Caesarea Philippi was a bazaar of worship places and temples, with altars erected to every concept of divinity from the gods of Greece to the godhead of Caesar. Amid this marketplace of gods, Jesus asks the Twelve, 'Who do people say that I am? . . . who do you say that I am?' This is a turning point in Mark's gospel: Peter responds, on behalf of the Twelve (?), by saying that Jesus is the Messiah. Now, for the first time in Mark's gospel, Jesus speaks about dark things ahead of him: rejection, suffering, death, and ultimate resurrection (concepts that the disciples are unable to grasp).

To the question Jesus poses (a moment recorded in all three Synoptics). Peter immediately confesses his faith in Jesus as the Messiah, the long-awaited Anointed One of God. But when Jesus begins to speak as one who will suffer rejection and death, Peter immediately objects. Peter's reaction is in keeping with what was the accepted notion of the time of a messiah who would restore the ancient Davidic kingdom's political and economic fortunes. Jesus' rebuke of Peter challenges that image of the Christ as a human construct, not that of God."

Enfocando el Evangelio - Marcos 8: 27-35

"En el evangelio de hoy, Pedro es un modelo de fe vacilante, un modelo que tipifica nuestra propia reacción al llamado al discipulado.

Cesarea de Filipo era un bazar de lugares de culto y templos, con altares erigidos para cada concepto de divinidad desde los dioses de Grecia hasta la divinidad de César. En medio de este mercado de dioses, Jesús pregunta a los Doce: "¿Quién dice la gente que soy yo? . . . ¿Quién dices que soy yo? Este es un punto de inflexión en el evangelio de Marcos: Pedro responde, en nombre de los Doce (?), Al decir que Jesús es el Mesías. Ahora, por primera vez en el evangelio de Marcos, Jesús habla acerca de las cosas oscuras que le esperan: el rechazo, el sufrimiento, la muerte y la resurrección final (conceptos que los discípulos no pueden comprender).

A la pregunta que plantea Jesús (un momento registrado en los tres sinópticos). Pedro inmediatamente confiesa su fe en Jesús como el Mesías, el tan esperado Ungido de Dios. Pero cuando Jesús comienza a hablar como alguien que sufrirá el rechazo y la muerte, Pedro inmediatamente se opone. La reacción de Pedro está de acuerdo con la noción aceptada del tiempo de un Mesías que restauraría las fortunas políticas y económicas del antiguo reino davídico. La reprensión de Jesús por Pedro desafiaba esa imagen de Cristo como una construcción humana, no la de Dios ".

Christian Formation - Enlisting Witnesses for Jesus Christ

This year, the Church will celebrate Catechetical Sunday on September 16, 2018. The 2018 theme will be "Enlisting Witnesses for Jesus Christ." Those who the Community has designated to serve as catechists will be called forth to be commissioned for their ministry. Catechetical Sunday is a wonderful opportunity to reflect on the role that each person plays, by virtue of their Baptism, in handing on the faith and being a witness to the Gospel. Catechetical Sunday is an opportunity for all to rededicate themselves to this mission as a community of faith.

Parents are truly the primary catechists of their children. They prepare the soil and plant the first seeds of faith. On Catechetical Sunday, we not only highlight the work of catechists in parishes and schools, but we also commend parents and guardians and encourage them to take seriously their role of making their Catholic households a place where faith is passed on to the next generation. This is why the rite of blessing of catechists used on Catechetical Sunday includes an optional blessing of parents and guardians.

Christian Formation - Adult Confirmation

Bishop Estévez will celebrate the sacrament of confirmation with adults on two occasions this coming year: Saturday, Jan. 12, 2019 at the 5:30 p.m. Mass at St. Patrick Parish, Gainesville, Sunday, June 9, 2019 at a 2:00 p.m. Mass at the Cathedral Basilica of St. Augustine. Both celebrations are for those people, who for whatever reason, did not complete their initiation into the Catholic Church as youth. Candidates are baptized and have received the sacraments of first reconciliation and first Eucharist. For more information, contact John J. Mathe Jr. our Coordinator of Christian Formation at 386-916-8092, EMAIL: sjccinterlachen@gmail.com
