Focusing the Gospel

Key words and phrases: Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man.

To the point: After witnessing the miraculous catch of fish Peter begs Jesus to leave him. Knowing his own sinfulness, Peter believes he is not worthy to be in the presence of the Lord of life. Jesus has other ideas, however. Throughout salvation history we witness God's pattern of choosing the small and weak, and yes, even sinful, to fulfill God's plan. Jesus responds to Peter's plea by reassuring him, "Do not be afraid." Jesus knows our sinfulness, loves us, and calls us to follow him anyway.

Enfocando el evangelio

Palabras y frases clave: Aléjate de mí, Señor, porque soy un hombre pecador.

Al punto: Después de presenciar la pesca milagrosa de peces, Pedro le ruega a Jesús que lo deje. Al conocer su propio pecado, Pedro cree que no es digno de estar en la presencia del Señor de la vida. Jesús tiene otras ideas, sin embargo a lo largo de la historia de la salvación, somos testigos del patrón de Dios de elegir a los pequeños y débiles, y sí, incluso al pecador, para cumplir el plan de Dios. Jesús responde a la súplica de Pedro al tranquilizarlo: "No tengas miedo". Jesús conoce nuestro pecado, nos ama y nos llama a seguirlo de todos modos.

CHRISTIAN FORMATION

Swear to God: The Promise and Power of the Sacraments

By Scott Hahn

The most solemn, majestic, and beautiful gifts that Jesus Christ gave to the world are His sacraments. He endowed them with unprecedented and unparalleled power—power to change lives, save souls, and share God's very life. The sacraments are the ordinary means by which God directs the course of each human life and all of world history.

The Church celebrates seven sacraments: baptism, Eucharist, confirmation, matrimony, holy orders, confession, and anointing of the sick. Each was established by Jesus for the sake of salvation. When Jesus spoke of the sacraments, He made clear that they were essential: Unless one is born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God (Jn 3:5) . . . unless you eat of the flesh of the Son of man and drink His blood, you have no life in you (Jn 6:53). In Swear to God, Dr. Scott Hahn explores the richness of Christ's sacraments—their doctrine, history, symbols, and rituals. Drawing upon the Bible and the Church's tradition, he shows how God's covenants—with Adam, Noah, Abraham, Moses, and David—became the driving forces in history. When Jesus came to fulfill all these covenants, He established a new covenant, with greater power than ever before. Christians are God's children now. Joined to Christ by baptism, we can already share in the eternal life of the Trinity, a life we hope to know fully in heaven. But heaven is with us, even now, in the sacraments.

If you or anyone in your family are in need of Sacramental preparation please contact John J. Mathe Jr. our Coordinator of Christian Formation at 386-916-8092, EMAIL: sjccinterlachen@gmail.com

Stations of the Cross

Each Friday evening during the Season of Lent we will have the Stations of the Cross at 6:00 PM. This will be followed by a Lenten meal of soup and bread. Please plan to attend.

Faith Sharing Group

The Faith Sharing Group meets every Wednesday at 9:00. Attendance rewards you with a chance to slow down, recall the day or week in quiet time and connect with Jesus, yourself, and others. For more information please call Lois at 386-684-6278.

Share a Prayer

Many of us have a favorite prayer; one that we find puts our thoughts into words better than we could or one that we find right on target. If you have a prayer you'd like to share, please drop it off or email it to the Church Office. Contributors will of course be anonymous unless you request otherwise.
