Tip for Eucharistic Congress at Prime Osborn: No food is allowed inside. Tailgating could be 1/2 mile away. Food vendor lines are long inside with people wanting to eat at the same time. Consider pockets or purses to store an emergency candy bar or two for small kids or if you need a bit of sugar. Remember any medical supplies you need as well.

"We are a welcoming and embracing community centered on Jesus in the Eucharist"

March 17, 2019 - Second Sunday of Lent

Focusing the Gospel

Key words and phrases: This is my chosen Son; listen to him.

To the point: For the second time in the Gospel of Luke the voice of God claims Jesus as God's son. The first moment was at his baptism when "the holy Spirit descended upon him in, bodily form" (Luke 3:22; NABRE). At that time the voice of God proclaimed, "You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased" (NABRE). At the Jordan River the voice from heaven speaks directly to Jesus, but on the mountain where Jesus goes to pray with his closest companions the voice addresses those around Jesus—Peter, James, and John—telling them, "This is my chosen Son; listen to him." These words are addressed to us when we encounter our Lord in the Word and the Eucharist, "Behold, here is Jesus the chosen one, listen to him."

Enfocando el evangelio

Palabras y frases clave: Este es mi Hijo elegido; Escúchenlo

Al punto: por segunda vez en el Evangelio de Lucas, la voz de Dios reclama a Jesús como el hijo de Dios. La primera vez fue en su bautismo cuando "el Espíritu Santo descendió sobre él en forma de paloma" (Lucas 3:22; NABRE). En ese momento la voz de Dios proclamó: "Tú eres mi Hijo amado; en quien me complazco" (NABRE). En el río Jordán, la voz del cielo habla directamente a Jesús, pero en la montaña donde Jesús va a orar con sus compañeros más cercanos, la voz se dirige a los que están cerca de Jesús: Pedro, Santiago y Juan. - diciéndoles: "Este es mi Hijo mi elegido; Escúchenlo. "Estas palabras se dirigen a nosotros cuando nos encontramos con nuestro Señor Jesucristo en las escrituras y en la Eucaristía," He aquí, aquí está Jesús mi elegido, escuchémoslo".

Join thousands of your Catholic brothers and sisters for the 2019 Eucharistic Congress, March 29-30, at the Prime Osborn Convention Center in Jacksonville. This is a great opportunity to celebrate our diversity and unite as One Faith and One Family. On Friday, there will be the Living Stations of the Cross and a keynote address by Jesuit Father Robert Spitzer. On Saturday, there will be talks by nationally-known speakers in English and Spanish along with Mass, praise and worship music, Eucharistic Adoration, confession and more.

Note for next Saturday March 30th. There will be no mass on Saturday 3/30/2019 because of the 2019 Eucharistic Congress in Jacksonville.

Christian Formation

Sacramental preparation for those who are seeking to receive the Sacraments of Initiation will continue every Sunday during Lent with the exception of Palm Sunday and Easter. Sessions will be held from 11:00 am until 11:50 am. We will have registration forms available for those who have not previously filled one out. We will discuss dates and times for future sessions. Everyone is welcome to attend. Please pray for those who are continuing their journey of faith. If you or anyone in your family are in need of Sacramental preparation please contact John J. Mathe Jr. our Coordinator of Christian Formation at 386-916- 8092, EMAIL: sjccinterlachen@gmail.com

Bishop's Annual Stewardship Appeal

Lord, it is good to give thanks to you. The nature of God is to give and to give. His grace continues to draw us together as One Faith, One Family in the Lord. In return, we gather in thanksgiving, to celebrate the Eucharist, pray the Gospels, and live the faith. May your heart overflow in gratitude for the countless blessings God has bestowed on you. In His image, we move in the world bringing joy, peace, and love as we share our gifts.

Stations of the Cross and Lenten Supper

Each Friday evening during the Season of Lent we will have the Stations of the Cross at 6:00 PM. This will be followed by a Lenten meal of soup and bread. The following groups will be providing the soup and bread, please coordinate with your ministry leader.

- Mar 22 - Parish Council / El Consejo parroquial
- Mar 29 - Hispanic Community / Comunidad Hispana
- Apr 5 - Eucharistic Ministers & Choir / Ministros se la Eucaristia y Coro
- Apr 12 - St Vincent DePaul / San Vincente de Pablo

Respect Life comes early. As a response to our youth asking why "Respect Life" isn't a year round event, the Knights of Columbus along with sons, grandsons, and volunteers placed crosses to keep us reminded daily. For information about Respect Life events throughout the year, visit the Diocesan Center for Family Life web site at: <https://family.dosafl.com/respect-life-event-calendar>

You are reminded of the Church's laws for fast and abstinence during Lent, which began on Ash Wednesday, March 6, 2019. Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are days of fasting. Catholics between the ages of 18 and 59 are permitted one full meal and two lesser meals per day (which together should not equal one full meal), with no eating between meals. Ash Wednesday and all Fridays of Lent are days of abstinence. Catholics who are 14 years or older should abstain from meat entirely. Soups and gravies made from meat are permitted.
