Wednesday the 15th is the feast day for Saint Isidore the Farmer. Saint Isidore is widely venerated as the patron saint of farmers, peasants, day laborers and agriculture in general, as well as brick layers. Many marvelous happenings accompanied his lifelong work in the fields and continued long after his holy death. He was favored with celestial visions and, it is said, the angels sometimes helped him in his work in the fields. St. Isidore was canonized in 1622. (Catholic Online www.catholic.org)

The Knights of Columbus are serving a Pancake Breakfast after 9:30 mass. Just $2.00 for adults & kids are free.

Focusing the Gospel

Key words and phrases: No one can take them out of my hand.

To the point: John's gospel gives us the beloved image of Jesus, the Good Shepherd, who calls his sheep by name and leads them in safety along the pathways of life. In today's gospel passage we hear only a fraction of Jesus' discourse on the Good Shepherd, and yet we are told what is most essential, we are united to Jesus in an unbreakable bond of love. Jesus proclaims, "No one can take [my sheep] out of my hand." In the spiritual life we are called to attune our ears to the voice of our Good Shepherd showing us the way, and to fear not; nothing can separate us from the love of God.

Enfocando el evangelio

Palabras y frases clave: Nadie puede quitarme mis ovejas.

Al punto: el evangelio de Juan nos da la imagen amada de Jesús, el Buen Pastor, que llama a sus ovejas por su nombre y las guía a lo largo de los caminos de la vida. En el pasaje del evangelio de hoy escuchamos solo una fracción del discurso de Jesús sobre el Buen Pastor, y sin embargo, se nos dice qué es lo más esencial, estamos unidos a Jesús en un vínculo de amor inquebrantable. Jesús proclama: "Nadie puede tomar [mis ovejas] de mi mano". En la vida espiritual estamos llamados a sintonizar nuestros oídos con la voz de nuestro Buen Pastor que nos muestra el camino, y que no temamos; Nada puede separarnos del amor de Dios.

A Prayer for Mothers

All-loving God, we give you thanks and praise for mothers young and old.

We pray for young mothers, who give life and count toes and tend to our every need; May they be blessed with patience and tenderness to care for their families and themselves with great joy.

We pray for our own mothers who have nurtured and cared for us; May they continue to guide us in strong and gentle ways.

We remember mothers who are separated from their children because of war, poverty, or conflict; May they feel the loving embrace of our God who wipes every tear away.

We pray for women who are not mothers but still love and shape us with motherly care and compassion.

We remember mothers, grandmothers, and great-grandmothers who are no longer with us but who live forever in our memory and nourish us with their love. Amen. (www.lordcalls.com)

CHRISTIAN FORMATION

Brief Overview of the RICA

RICA is the normative process in the U.S. wherein un-catechized children over the age of reason (7-8) and adults are fully received into the Church. (RCIA forward viii-xi)

RICA consists of 3 types of people:

- o Catechumens: Un -baptized and no formation
- o Candidates: Baptized in an acceptable form in another faith tradition
- o Candidates: Baptized Catholic: to confirm these candidates, a delegation from Bishop is needed.

BREVE RESUMEN DEL RICA

RICA es el proceso normativo de los Estados Unidos en donde los niños no catequizados mayores de la edad de la razón (7-8) y los adultos son totalmente recibidos en la Iglesia.

RICA se compone de 3 tipos de personas:

- o Catecúmenos: No-bautizados y ninguna formación
- o Candidatos: Bautizado en una forma aceptable/ o en otra tradición de fe.
- o Candidatos Bautizados católicos: Estos candidates son para confirmar, pero necesitan una delegación del Obispo.
