

Natanael Leal is a dancer, teacher, artist and choreographer. Originally from Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, he received the latter part of his professional dance training at Miami City Ballet School. As a professional dancer, he has been contracted as a Soloist with Ballet Fantastique in Eugene, OR, and is currently engaged with Dimensions Dance Theatre of Miami. On his time off from the company, he works as an independent dancer and choreographer.

Leal's love of dance and passion for the arts shines through with each work he is involved in, and choreography he composes. Imaginative and creative, he is constantly seeking new inspiration to bring his next performance to life. As a featured company dancer with Dimensions, Leal has performed soloist roles in Septime Webre's "Juanita y Alicia", and Gerald Arpino's "Light Rain", and has danced with the company on some of the country's most prestigious dance stages.
