

Everth Lopez, a Miami native, has several connections to The Mandelstam School, and now adds another through Mandelstam Dance. A professional dancer, actor, and gymnast, Lopez received his dance training at reputable schools including Miami City Ballet, New World School of the Arts, and Alvin Ailey Dance Center. Lopez spent most of his professional dance career out on the west coast, in Los Angeles, CA where his professional accolades have ranged from dancing in Broadway productions of Lion King, Wicked, and Norte Dame de Paris (Las Vegas) to performing for the American Choreography Awards, and dancing in the popular music videos of major Artists, such as Jessica Simpson, Gloria Estefan, Usher, and Will Smith. Drawing from the diversity and extent of his professional experience, Lopez infuses his classes with a unique variety styles, exposing young dancers to a priceless range of techniques relevant to today's most prestigious jazz and contemporary dance platforms.