PROCESS

Think you have what it takes? Here's the process to get started:

- CONTACT US - Review all the information provided above to get a feel for the format, guidelines, and benefits. Use the Contact Form at onemoviepunch.com with the subject header of Takeover Tuesday, including a potential movie. I'll get back to you as soon as possible to find a place on the schedule. We'll need at least two weeks from start to finish.
- REVIEW MOVIE - Once you're on the schedule, make some time to watch the movie, write and record your review, then upload it to One Movie Punch, no later than the Friday before your review is scheduled. I'll need that time to listen and provide feedback, if needed, in time for posting.
- PROMOTE REVIEW - Once the podcast is scheduled, we'll work together to promote the daily episode, weekly digest, and encourage online reviews. It only works if we work together.
