

SSPP FAQ's

What is the SSPP?

The Stop Smoking Practitioner Programme (SSPP) is a NZQA certified training course that combines best practice concepts and methods to help the New Zealand stop smoking workforce achieve a consistent national standard.

Recognised as the SSPP, the official NZQA name is the New Zealand Certificate in Health and Wellbeing \(Level 3\) Support Work.

The competency-based training programme includes 15 unit standards with a total of 70 credits.