

Praise Heart Partners With You To Bring Your Dreams To Life!

Paint parties, and workshops, are a fun & unique way to gain visibility, generate positive exposure, and make money to further your vision! People have a great time, and your work is minimized because I've perfected the process, providing an incredible experience you can be proud of. Past groups have said it's the easiest fundraiser they've ever done! As a stage artist, teacher, speaker and writer, I recognize the value of fundraising with excellence. I'd love the opportunity to partner with you and your amazing organization!

So how does this work?

- Volunteers stay for cleanup.
- Room set up (with chairs and covered tables) should be complete prior to the event.
- A microphone should be provided for larger groups.
- Some type of music is preferred but not mandatory.
- I'll work with you to determine the best possible set up and flow for the space.

Pricing structure:

- As a dreamer of dreams and one who reaches for the stars, I hold fundraising near to my heart. I have gotten myself to Romani, through these fundraisers----it works!!!! Fundraisers serve as opportunities to share your vision, connect to your community, and of course build revenue. It's my honor to stand alongside you.
- How? I give you HALF of the profit. Yes, half! Really! Here's the breakdown. Tickets are sold for $35 per person (plus a small processing fee that the participant pays). $10 is taken out for COST. This includes art supply "consumables", (such as paints, canvas, etc.) as well as a percentage for "non-consumables" that require replacement (such as easels, brushes, etc.).

- The remaining $25 from each ticket, is split! You get $12.50, and I get $12.50. It's that easy. We all get to continue doing the work we love!
- A typical organization brings in 50-80 people on a fundraiser paint party. That's $500 - $800 EASY in one day! And people LOVE IT! It's a win/win/win and a proven success time and time again!
