

Frequently Asked Questions!

What's the time frame for a paint party?

For your guests, the party will be about 3 hours, which includes a teaching and time built in for a snack.

What type of mediums are used?

Depending on the painting/workshop that you choose—there are a host of mediums, from hot glue to buttons, acrylic paint and markers! I will let you know, exactly, what will be used as we move along in the process.

What do we paint on?

Again, depending on the workshop or painting you choose, we could be working in a journal or on a 11 x 14 wrapped canvas.

Do you provide easels?

I do not use easels, but prefer to have the canvas, journal resting on the table.

What will we paint?

That's the fun part! Let's talk more about your group and what may be the best fit.

Why do you use an event ticketing system?

Ticket sales can be a load of administrative work. I've tried it numerous ways, but have found that the best avenue for both myself, as well as your organization, is using a third party ticketing system.

How will our organization be paid?

At the event, I will give you a check for your share of the proceeds.

I can't paint?

You can do all things through Christ who strengthens you and the encouragement of those around you!!! Your participants will walk away feeling accomplished and encouraged!

You may have concerns that I am not aware of – please let me know how I can help you!!
