Please note that my husband Paul is attending, as he helps on all my work appointments. Paul will be doing most of the kitchen duties. He is quiet, friendly, easy going and approachable and has a good sense of humour. He is also the only male allowed on site. Paul is the First Aid person as he is trained and is an ex Rescue Fireman.

Judi Nightingale from New Zealand and Narelle Monteleone are our guest practitioners joining us to make sure you are very nurtured and supported.

Reiki and Seichim treatments will be available throughout Saturday with Narelle. There will be designated times for each guest. You will also have time to contemplate and process what you are learning and to ask questions at the group sessions.

During your time with us I would like you to feel relaxed and able to approach any of us. We are experienced practitioners and are here to assist you in whatever way we can.

You will require the following supplies:
