Please note my husband Paul is attending, as he looks after the kitchen duties. He is also the only male allowed on site. He is friendly, easy going and approachable and has a good sense of humour. Paul is the First Aid person because he is an ex Rescue Fireman.

Judi Nightingale from New Zealand and Narelle Monteleone are my support practitioners. During your time with us I would like you to feel relaxed and able to approach any of us. We are experienced practitioners and are here to assist you in whatever way we can.

You will require the following supplies:

- Pens, coloured pens or pencils and personal journal.
- Suitable comfortable clothing. Please do not bring valuables with you. Preferably do not bring cash for security reasons.
- Please bring personal toiletries.
- Please make sure you have read and filled in and signed the first page before returning to me.
- You will also be emailed a menu once you have enrolled, which is to be filled out and returned to me. Please do not send these documents via Messenger, Viber or Whatsapp thank you.
- Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to email me prior to signing and submitting this form.

I look forward to assisting you to move forward with your life!

Kindest regards
