Nantah's Spiritual School

Code of Ethics & Practises for Healers

- 1) Work only in and through God's Love for the Highest Good of yourself and those you assist. Love is the motivational energy of being a Light Worker and is the only acceptable motive.
- 2) You have an obligation and responsibility to yourself and client to conduct yourself and the session with respect, honesty, integrity, accuracy, compassion and empathy.
- 3) Never judge or criticize another's situation. You have no knowledge of their Divine Plan. Respect every soul's journey.
- 4) Maintain a high ethical and moral practice to earn a good reputation by loving your work and providing a professional service.
- 5) Never predict accident, sickness, or death. You are responsible for a client's wellbeing and not to cause any trauma.
- 6) Every client you see must leave feeling at least 50% more uplifted and positive than when they first arrived to your session.
- 7) You are to give the guidance from the Angels precisely as you receive it, your personal interpretation could be wrong. If you do not understand the guidance say nothing and consult Nantah Ensom.
- 8) Use your diplomacy in difficult situations to maintain integrity, honesty, compassion, understanding and support for the client. If you cannot deal with the situation refer them to another practitioner and be aware the moment this occurs.
- 9) The Universal Law of Cause and Effect works perfectly. Whatever your desired effect is, you must determine the way you will cause it prior to beginning. Keep your ego in check.
- 10) Remind the client that they have Free Will to make their own choices and decisions. The spiritual guidance you provide is the guidance they request but are not obligated to follow.
