RECEIVER'S MOTIONS FOR ORDER (1) ALLOWING CLAIMS OF DANIEL GERLER AND CALERES INVESTMENT COMPANY, INC., and (2) AUTHORIZING DISTRIBUTION OF ESTATE PROPERTY TO DANIEL GERLER AND CALERES INVESTMENT COMPANY, INC.

I. RELIEF REQUESTED

Pursuant to RCW 7.60.190(6)(a) and (b), Oswego Group LLC, doing business as Inverness Group ("Receiver"), hereby moves the Court (the "Motion") for the entry of an order (1) allowing the secured claims of Daniel Gerler ("Gerler") and Caleres Investment Company, Inc. ("Caleres", and, together with Gerler, the "Priority Secured Creditors"), in the amounts described below, (2) authorizing the Receiver to immediately (a) distribute the Litigation Claim (defined below) and pay $1,500,000 to Gerler as an interim distribution on account of the Gerler Secured Claim (defined below), and (b) pay $235,000 to Caleres as a final distribution on account of the Caleres Secured Claim (defined below), and (3) granting such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and equitable.

There is currently pending a parallel receivership proceeding in British Columbia, Canada, for Shoes.com Technologies Inc., and Shoeme Technologies Limited (the "Canadian Receivership"). The relief sought in this Motion is conditioned on the receiver in the Canadian Receivership administering its estates consistent with the terms of a settlement agreement between the Priority Secured Creditors.

This Motion is based upon the records and files herein and the accompanying Declaration of John L. Davidson ("Davidson Decl.").

II. INTRODUCTION

As detailed below, the assets in this Receivership Estate (defined below) are subject to the first and second priority security interests of the Priority Secured Creditors, but are insufficient to pay them in full. As a result, the Receiver does not expect there to be any distribution to other creditors.

The Priority Secured Creditors have each asserted that the other's claims and security interests are subject to attack, resulting in one of these creditors receiving substantially all of the Receivership Estate's assets. Pursuant to a settlement between the Priority Secured Creditors their dispute has been conditionally resolved. Their settlement is conditioned on distributions in this proceeding and the Canadian Receivership in accordance with the terms of the settlement.

Most importantly, the Priority Secured Creditors' settlement avoids the costs, uncertainty and delay of litigation between the only parties who have a stake in the remaining assets of the Receivership Estate. The Receiver supports distribution in accordance with the settlement.

III. STATEMENT OF FACTS

- A. Procedural Background and Sale of Estate Assets.
- 1. Pursuant to this Court's Stipulated Order Appointing General Receiver (the "Receivership Order"), the Receiver was appointed general receiver on February 2, 2017 (the "Receivership Date") for the estates of Shoes.com, Inc. ("Shoes.com"), and Onlineshoes.com Inc. ("OLS") (together, the "Receivership Estate"). (Davidson Decl., ¶ 2).
- 2. On February 28, 2017, the Receiver filed the Receiver's Motion for Orders: (1) Approving the Sale of Assets Free and Clear of Liens, Claims, Encumbrances and Interests; (2) Approving Bid and Auction Procedures; (3) Scheduling Hearing to Approve Sale of Assets; and (4) Approving Assumption and Assignment of Executory Contracts (the "Sale Motion"). (Davidson Decl., ¶ 3).
- 3. On March 28, pursuant to the Court-approved bid and auction procedures and the Sale Motion, the Receiver sold substantially all of the assets of the Receivership Estate at public auction, subject to approval of the Court. (Davidson Decl., \P 4).
- 4. On April 3, the Court granted the Sale Motion and entered the Order (1)
 Approving Sale of Assets Free and Clear of Liens, Claims, Encumbrances and Interests, (2)
 Approving Assumption and Assignment of Executory Contracts, and (3) Granting Related Relief (the "Sale Approval Order").² (Davidson Decl., ¶ 5).
- 5. Pursuant to both (A) the Sale Approval Order and, (B) the April 3, 2017, Asset Purchase and Sale Agreement attached thereto ("Agreement"), on April 21, 2017, the Sale closed. Pursuant to the terms of the Agreement, the Receiver received $6,590,720 (net of certain costs paid at closing and subject to a final inventory adjustment to the purchase price that can only increase the net sale proceeds to the Receivership Estate). (Davidson Decl., ¶ 6).

² Capitalized terms not otherwise defined have the meanings ascribed to them in the Sale Approval Order.

- 6. Pursuant to RCW 7.60.260(2)(ii) and the terms of the Sale Approval Order, the security interests and liens of secured creditors attach to the sale proceeds to the same extent and priority as such security interests and liens had attached to the Purchased Assets.
 - B. Previous Payments by the Receiver to Secured Creditors, and Remaining Receivership Estate Assets.
- 7. On June 12, 2017, the Court entered the Agreed Order (1) Allowing Claim of Wells Fargo, and (2) Authorizing Payment of Wells Fargo's Secured Claim. Pursuant to the order, the Receiver paid Wells Fargo $4,195,771.03, plus accruing interest and attorneys' fees, in full satisfaction of Wells Fargo's secured claim. (Davidson Decl., ¶ 7).
- 8. On September 29, 2017, the Court entered the Agreed Order on Motion of GEODIS Logistics, LLC for Order Directing Payment of its Secured Claim. Pursuant to the order, the Receiver paid GEODIS Logistics $237,500.00, and the balance of GEODIS Logistics' claim was disallowed. (Davidson Decl., ¶ 8).
- 9. As a result of the sale of substantially all of the Receivership Estate's assets, and the payments to Wells Fargo and GEODIS Logistics, the Receivership Estate currently holds the following assets: (a) approximately $2 million in cash proceeds from the asset Sale, (b) interest in funds held back from the asset Sale proceeds and subject to recovery by final adjustment, if any, based on the final inventory count and agreement between Buyer and Sellers under the terms of the Sale, (c) certain accounts receivable (the "Accounts Receivable"), and (d) OLS's pre-receivership litigation claims against Wells Fargo Merchant Services, Inc., and Wells Fargo Bank, NA ("Defendants"), which were previously pending in Suffolk County, New York (the "Litigation Claim"). (Davidson Decl., ¶ 9).

- 10. The Litigation Claim is comprised of claims against OLS's former credit card payment processor for breach of contract and misrepresentation. (Davidson Decl., ¶ 11, and Exhibit 2, at ¶¶ 41-47 and 48-57). However, as reflected in the Amended Complaint filed in the case, the misrepresentation claims primarily relate to Defendants' alleged failure to perform the parties' contract, and how assurances from Defendants kept OLS from terminating the agreement sooner than it did. (Id., at ¶¶ 39-40 and 54).⁵
- Although there can be no certainty as to its precise value given the time, risks, and delay inherent in litigation, and uncertainty as to the underlying merits of the Litigation Claim, the Receiver estimates that the value of the Litigation Claim, excluding the costs of prosecuting the claims, is between $0 and $50,000. (Davidson Decl., ¶ 13). As of the date of this Motion, the Receiver does not have authority to use the Priority Secured Creditors' cash collateral to pay legal expenses that would be incurred to prosecute the Litigation Claim.
 - B. The Gerler and Caleres Secured Claims.
 - (i) Daniel Gerler's Secured Claim.
- 12. On July 8, 2014, Daniel Gerler loaned $3,000,000 to Shoes.com Holdings (USA) Inc., f/k/a A12345 Holdings Inc. ("Holdings"). The original promissory note was amended by the December 23, 2014, Amended and Restated Secured Convertible Subordinated Promissory Note (the "Gerler Note"). The loan was purchase money financing provided by Gerler in connection with the sale of his 100% equity ownership of

⁵ As reflected in the Amended Complaint, OLS also asserted claims for conversion and attorneys' fees. The conversion claims relate to funds held by Defendants, substantially all of which have since been returned to OLS and the Receivership Estate. Such funds are proceeds of inventory, and therefore would be part of the Priority Secured Creditors' collateral under any circumstance. (Davidson Decl., ¶ 12). The claim for attorneys' fees is likewise based on the provisions of the party's contract. (Davidson Decl., Exhibit 2, at ¶¶ 62-65).

Gerler & Son, Inc., now known as OLS⁷ to Holdings. (Davidson Decl., ¶ 14).

- 13. On July 8, 2014, OLS executed a Security Agreement, pursuant to which it granted a security interest to Gerler in substantially all of OLS's assets, including but not limited to its inventory, accounts receivable, general intangibles, and proceeds therefrom (the "OLS Collateral"). OLS did not execute a guaranty of Holdings' performance of the Gerler Note. (Davidson Decl., ¶ 15).
- 14. On July 8, 2014, Gerler perfected its security interest in the OLS Collateral by filing a Financing Statement with the Washington Department of Licensing, at document number 2014-189-7473-4. (Id., ¶ 16).
- 15. On March 18, 2015, Shoes.com executed a Guaranty Agreement, pursuant to which it guarantied Holdings' performance of the Gerler Note. At the same time, Shoes.com also executed a Security Agreement pursuant to which it granted Gerler a security interest in substantially all of Shoes.com's assets, including but not limited to its inventory, accounts receivable, general intangibles, and proceeds therefrom (the "Shoes.com Collateral"). (Davidson Decl., ¶ 17).
- 16. Gerler perfected his security interests in the Shoes.com Collateral by filing a financing statement with the Delaware Department of State on June 28, 2016, at document number 2016 4680076. (Davidson Decl., ¶ 18). The OLS Collateral and the Shoes.com Collateral are referred to collectively as the "Gerler Collateral."
- 17. On March 28, 2017, Gerler submitted his Proof of Claim to the Receiver (the "Gerler Proof of Claim"), which includes copies of the Gerler Note, Shoes.com Guaranty Agreement, the Security Agreements, and the Financing Statements. The amount of Gerler's claim, which is secured by the Gerler Collateral, is the principal amount of $3,000,000, plus interest of $13,750.00 accrued through March 28, 2017, plus interest thereafter at the rate of

- 5.50% per annum ($458.33 per day) (the "Gerler Secured Claim"). (Davidson Decl., ¶ 19).
 - (ii) Caleres Investment Company's Secured Claim.
- 18. On December 12, 2014, Caleres loaned $7,500,000 to Holdings, as memorialized by a Secured Convertible Note (the "Caleres Note"). The loan from Caleres was purchase money financing for Holdings in connection with its purchase of the equity interests in Shoes.com. (Davidson Decl., ¶ 20).
- 19. That same day, OLS, Shoes.com and certain other parties executed a Guarantee and Security Agreement. Pursuant to that agreement, OLS and Shoes.com guaranteed Holdings' performance of the Caleres Note. (Id., ¶ 21).
- 20. In addition, pursuant to the Guarantee and Security Agreement, (a) OLS granted a security interest in its "Collateral Records" and inventory, and (b) Shoes.com granted a security interest in its Collateral Records, inventory, and domain names, to Caleres, as collateral for Holdings' performance of the Caleres Note (the "Caleres Collateral"). (Davidson Decl., ¶ 22).
- 21. Caleres perfected its security interests in the Caleres Collateral by filing financing statements with the Washington Department of Licensing on December 15, 2014, at document number 2014-349-2922-0 (with respect to OLS), and with the Delaware Department of State on December 12, 2014, at document number 2014 5056494 (with respect to Shoes.com). (Davidson Decl., ¶ 23).
- 22. On March 27, 2017, Caleres submitted its Proof of Claim to the Receiver (the "Caleres Proof of Claim"), which includes copies of the Guaranty and Security Agreement and the Financing Statements. As of February 1, 2017, the amount of Caleres' secured claim was the principal amount of $7,500,000, plus accrued interest of $46,027.52, plus interest accruing interest thereafter at the rate of 9.0% per annum ($1,849.32 per day), plus attorneys' fees and costs (the "Caleres Secured Claim"). (Davidson Decl., ¶ 24).
 - 23. The amounts claimed in the Gerler Proof of Clam and the Caleres Proof of claim has been disallowed by order of this Court, and (3) Deans Knight Capital Management Ltd. has withdrawn its secured claim in this proceeding. In addition to those three creditors, four other creditors have submitted claims that allege a lien or security interest in Receivership Estate assets and which, in the aggregate, total approximately $50,000. The Receiver believes that these claims will ultimately be disallowed in substantial part. In any event, after making distributions requested by this Motion the Receivership Estate will still Claim are consistent with the books and records of OLS and Shoes.com. (Davison Decl., ¶ 25).

- 24. The Receiver has analyzed the Gerler Secured Claim and the Caleres Secured Claim and determined, in the exercise of his judgment, that (a) they should be allowed in the amounts and security interest priorities described above, and (b) there is likely no meritorious basis to seek disallowance of the claims, in whole or in part. Consequently, objecting to either claim is unlikely to benefit the Receivership Estate or its creditors. (Davidson Decl., ¶ 26).
 - C. The Priority Secured Creditors' Settlement Agreement.
- 25. Gerler and Caleres, the first and second priority secured creditors⁸ in the Receivership Estate's assets, entered a Settlement Agreement on October 31, 2017. (See Davidson Decl., ¶ 27 and Exhibit 3 (the "Settlement Agreement")).
- 26. Among other things, the Settlement Agreement provides that, except for $235,000 (the "Caleres US Proceeds"), Caleres waives all of its right, title and interest to the Receivership Estates' assets and assigns any such interests to Gerler. In turn, Gerler waives any claim to the Caleres US Proceeds, and assigns any such interests to Caleres. Gerler also waives any claims to sale proceeds in the Canadian Receivership, and assigns his interest in any such claims to Caleres. (Settlement Agreement, p. 2, at ¶ 1).
- 27. The Settlement Agreement is conditioned on the Receiver and the receiver in the Canadian Receivership administering their respective receivership estates in a manner

(1) Wells Fargo's claim has been paid in full, (2) the unpaid balance of GEODIS Logistics' consistent with the terms of the Settlement Agreement. (Settlement Agreement, at \P 2). The Receiver supports distribution from the Receivership Estate consistent with the terms of the Settlement Agreement. (Davidson Decl., \P 29).

III. STATEMENT OF THE ISSUES

- 28. The Motion presents the following issues:
- A. Whether pursuant to RCW 7.60.190(6)(a) the Court should enter an order allowing the Gerler Secured Claim and the Caleres Secured Claim.
- B. Whether pursuant to RCW 7.60.190(6)(b) the Court should enter an order authorizing the Receiver, subject to the conditions described in the Settlement Agreement, to pay $235,000 to Caleres as a final distribution on the Caleres Secured Claim.
- C. Whether pursuant to RCW 7.60.190(6)(b) the Court should enter an order authorizing the Receiver, subject to the conditions described in the Settlement Agreement, to pay $1,500,000 to Gerler and distribute the Litigation Claim as an interim distribution on the Gerler Secured Claim.
- D. Whether the Litigation Claim is a general intangible under RCW 62A.9A-102(a)(42).

IV. EVIDENCE RELIED UPON

29. This Motion is supported by the record and files herein, the Receivership Order, and the accompanying Declaration of John L. Davidson.

V. AUTHORITY

- A. Allowance and Payment of Claims Under RCW 7.60.190(6)(a), (b), and RCW7.60.210(4).
- 30. Washington's receivership statute provides that claims may be allowed, and estate property may be distributed, on written notice. RCW 7.60.190(6)(a) and (b). Any hearing on claim allowance and/or distribution of estate property shall be set not less than 30 days following notice of the hearing. (Id.). Here, the hearing on this Motion is scheduled more than 30 days after it was served, on December 11, 2017.

- 31. The receivership statute also provides that a claim, executed and served in accordance with RCW 7.60.210, "constitutes prima facie evidence of the validity and amount of the claim." RCW 7.60.210(4). Here, Gerler has submitted the Gerler Proof of Claim and Caleres has submitted the Caleres Proof of Claim to the Receiver, which provide prima facie evidence of their validity and amount. In addition, the amounts claimed in the Gerler Proof of Clam and the Caleres Proof of Claim are consistent with the books and records of OLS and Shoes.com.
- 32. As recited in the Settlement Agreement, each of the Priority Secured Creditors alleged that the other's claim was subject to attack. Because of the amounts claimed by the Priority Secured Creditors, unless both claims were to be substantially disallowed, there will be no estate assets available for other creditors.⁹
- 33. The Receiver has analyzed the Gerler Secured Claim and the Caleres Secured Claim and determined, in the exercise of his judgment, that (a) they should be allowed in the amounts and security interest priorities described above, and (b) there is likely no meritorious basis to seek disallowance of the claims, in whole or in part. Consequently, objecting to either claim is unlikely to benefit the Receivership Estate or its creditors.
- 34. Further, even if there were a meritorious basis to challenge either of the claims, there would still be no recovery for other creditors unless both claims were disallowed in substantially their entire amounts. Washington's receivership statute does not require a receiver to pursue all potential claims where, as here, there is no apparent merit to the claims or likely benefit to the Receivership Estate and its creditors. Rather, the statue provides simply that a receiver has the "right to sue... in all cases necessary or proper for the conduct of the receivership." RCW 7.60.160(1) (emphasis added). Here, although Gerler and Caleres initially claimed that the other creditor's claims were subject to attack, the Receiver has not discovered a meritorious basis to seek disallowance of either claim, let alone both, such that there would be any benefit to the Receivership Estate or its creditors.

⁹ Unlike the Gerler Collateral, the Caleres Collateral does not include "general intangibles" such as the Litigation Claim. Consequently, if only the Gerler Secured Claim was disallowed, the Receiver's recovery (if any) on account of the Litigation Claim would benefit the Receivership Estate and its unsecured creditors. The Receiver does not, however, have court authority to use Caleres' cash collateral to pay the legal expenses to prosecute the Litigation Claim.

- 35. Simply put, Gerler and Caleres are the real parties in interest with respect to the remaining assets of the Receivership Estate. As such, their agreement for how to allocate the remaining Receivership Estate's assets is supported by the Receiver, and should be approved by this Court. Accordingly, the Receiver requests that this Court (a) allow the Gerler Secured Claim and the Caleres Secured Claim, and (b) authorize the Receiver to immediately (i) distribute the Litigation Claim and pay $1,500,000 to Gerler as an interim distribution on account of the Gerler Secured Claim, and (ii) pay $235,000 to Caleres as a final distribution on account of the Caleres Secured Claim.
 - B. The Litigation Claim is a General Intangible that is Collateral for the Gerler Secured Claim.
- 36. The Gerler Collateral includes general intangibles. A general intangible is broadly defined under the Uniform Commercial Code ("UCC") as "any personal property, including things in action...other than commercial tort claims...." RCW 62A.9A-102(a)(42). A borrower's pledge of a right to proceeds from a lawsuit (other than a tort claim) thus constitutes a general intangible. Clark, The Law of Secured Transactions Under the Uniform Commercial Code, § 1.03[2] (A.S. Pratt 3d Ed. 2013). "The term 'general intangibles' is residual in nature; it picks up all personal property that does not fall within one of the other Article 9 categories." Id.
- 37. Besides the definition being a "catch-all," courts have concluded that "things in action" in the definition of "general intangibles" includes lawsuits. See, e.g., In re Wiersma, 283 B.R. 294, 303 (Bankr. D. Idaho 2002), rev'd on other grounds, 483 F3d 933 (9th Cir 2007). Therefore, unless the Litigation Claim is a commercial tort claim," it is a general intangible that is part of the Gerler Collateral.

- 38. The UCC defines a commercial tort claim, in part, as a "claim arising in tort with respect to which ...the claimant is an organization...." RCW 62A.9A-102(13).
- 39. Although there is not much case law on this subject, the Litigation Claim is a general intangible. In In re Wiersma, the Idaho Bankruptcy Court concluded that a lawsuit with both contract and tort claims is a general intangible, even if the breach of contract results from the negligence of the breaching party -- so long as the negligence relates to performance of the contract. In re Wiersma, 283 B.R. at 302-03. Here, as in Wiersma, the Litigation Claim includes both breach of contract and tor claims. However, as detailed above, the tort claim that was asserted by OLS (misrepresentation), relates principally to the defendants' alleged failure to perform the parties' agreement. ¹⁰ The claim for attorneys' fees is likewise a contract-based claim. Finally, the conversion claim has been largely resolved by the Defendants' prior return of substantially all of the funds that were the subject of that claim. Accordingly, the Litigation Claim is, in the Receiver's considered opinion, a general intangible that is part of the Gerler Collateral.

VI. CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, the Receiver respectfully requests that the Court enter an order (1) allowing the Gerler Secured Claim and the Caleres Secured Claim, in the amounts and with the priorities described above, (2) authorizing the Receiver to immediately (a) distribute the Litigation Claim and pay $1,500,000 to Gerler as an interim distribution on account of the Gerler Secured Claim, and (b) pay $235,000 to Caleres as a final distribution on account of the Caleres Secured Claim, and (3) granting such other and further relief as the Court may
