Experience Highlights

Cynthia is a practicing Barrister with 12 years' call, with a diverse practise. Cynthia completed her training to be an accredited mediator in 2014 and uses her skills, experience and attributes to help parties resolve disputes in practical and effective ways.

Cynthia is committed to and is an advocate of mediation, and volunteers with organisations offering pro-bono services.

As a Barrister, Cynthia has represented clients in civil, commercial, family and public law matters, some of which have been highly complex, multi-party, and high value. Cynthia's ability to quickly understand complex matters and her background provides clients with the reassurance that they are in safe professional hands.
