

Kevin Haven

Panels

Civil

Commercial

Construction

Employment

Family

Property

Trusts &
Estates

Specialisms

Boundary disputes, Business to Business, Clinical Negligence/Personal Injury, Construction, building/marine, Education, Employment & Workplace, High value & complex claims, Inheritance, Insurance, Professional Negligence

Experience Highlights

Kevin is an accredited mediator (LSM) who has also undertaken training in Advance mediation skills and Workplace/Employment mediation

Kevin has worked in the legal profession since 1982 both as a barrister and a solicitor – in the latter role being a partner in a central London firm of solicitors and subsequently head of commercial litigation in setting up a regional office of a national firm of solicitors. Outside the legal profession he also has experience of working in insurance industry governance (Lloyds of London) and in family businesses. In mediation, his approach is to seek a clear vision from the participants as to their aspirations when assisting the parties to achieve a successful outcome.

Beyond his detailed knowledge of clinical negligence and personal injuries extending over in excess of 25 years Kevin also has significant experience in the following areas: Education – employment disputes/student grievance disputes/exclusions; Licensed Trade – contract/employment/tenancy disputes; Marine Trade/Yacht Racing disputes; Significant experience in all types of injury litigation