

Stephen Redman

Panels

Civil

Commercial

Construction

Employment

Family

Property

Trusts &
Estates

Specialisms

Commercial, Employment & Workplace, Civil Litigation

Experience Highlights

Accredited Mediator and (non-practising) Barrister with substantial commercial experience as in-house counsel. Extensive business experience in the commercial sector working closely alongside key decision makers at senior management and board level.

Stephen has acquired substantial experience in the life, pensions and insurance sectors and the management of claims and disputes. He has also worked extensively in the life sciences sector for both large and small to medium sized pharmaceutical companies, gaining invaluable experience of commercial contracts and intellectual property.

Stephen has a thorough understanding of employment law, having worked closely and extensively alongside HR professionals as in-house counsel, providing legal advice and support in relation to all manner of employment and workplace issues. As a volunteer adviser for Citizen's Advice, he provides advice, guidance and support to individual clients on a wide variety of issues including trading disputes, debt, employment, housing and benefits. Stephen's experience equips him to grasp the key issues and aspects that impact people's perspectives and decision making, and therefore enables him to assist participants to reach a sensible amicable settlement of commercial, employment and workplace disputes

I have substantial experience as in-house lawyer, managing commercial matters including M&A transactions and commercial disputes. I now work part time on a self employed basis providing legal services to corporate clients. I also volunteer as an adviser for Citizens Advice. My objective is to mix voluntary advice work (with CA and other organisations) with professional as well as pro bono mediation work in the fields of employment/workplace and commercial disputes.