Just £1 per month can change lives

Brass for Africa, bringing hope, skills, self confidence, self belief, employment, aspiration and a voice to disadvantaged children and young people in Africa through music.

Brass for Africa provides brass education and brass band opportunities to over 600 extremely disadvantaged children every week. Our welfare programmes are making life better for over 1000 children and we are providing local employment and training.

To continue our work we need your help.

Please help us by pledging just £1 per month, you can use the form overleaf or visit our website brassforafrica.org and hit the “donate” button.

Do you play in a Band?

Why not encourage your fellow members to donate £1 per month and collect it through your subs and join the Brass for Africa “Hall of Fame” on our Website.

30 members donating £1 per month would provide ongoing music education for two disadvantaged children in Africa.

45 members donating £1 per month would support the training and employment of a young African Brass for Africa music teacher.

There are also some exciting opportunities for your band through Brass for Africa, please visit our Bands page on our website brassforafrica.org to find out more.

Go on...change someone's life today.
