In accepting a part in BEAUTY AND THE BEAST, students and parents are making a commitment to make the show a priority over other activities except schoolwork. The show requires the hard work and dedication from all of its cast and crew. There are no small parts in this production so attendance is critical to ensure all team members can be successful.

We recognize that some plans may have already been made. If you know of conflicts including personal holidays, vacations, family events, medical appointments and extracurricular/sports activities that will prevent your student from attending any rehearsal on a school day after school please include that information below.

This list will be reviewed for approval of dates. Excused absence from school or family emergencies are exceptions to this rule, but should be communicated to BHStage2016@gmail.com in advance of absence from missed afterschool activity.

All non-approved dates may result in dismissal from the show.

IMPORTANT NOTE: 100% attendance by cast and crew is required for all show dates and all rehearsals starting APRIL 1, 2016. At this time, we will begin rehearsing the show from beginning to end. All members of the cast, dance troop, and crew must be present in order to learn the movement of the show and its props, which enables us to have a safe and successful performance.
