World Book Day

Yesterday, saw the school awash with characters from the books of Oliver Jeffers. We had stars, boys who had lost their penguin, penguins, a plethora of crayons and many more.

The children engaged in a range of exciting activities in their classrooms and thoroughly enjoyed the day. Many thanks, to the children for looking so good; the parents and grandparents for their help in creating the costumes; and the staff who organised and led the day.

Winners of the best costume were Gabriel and Darcie, with runners up prizes going to Charlotte, Evie, Mariam and Oscar. Well done to all of you

Pancake Race

Tuesday saw the annual House Pancake Race take place on the school playground in front of an expectant, though slightly chilly crowd.

The competition was fierce as all classes, one by one, took their places on the start line. With house pride up for grabs, the children gave their all in search of the victory.

The worthy winners were a delighted Ermine House, though it must be said that all the children competed well, and with the true spirit of the event.
