

Privacy Policy

This Privacy Policy sets out how PSI2000 Ltd (“PSI”, “we”, “us”) collect, store, share, process and use the information about you (“Personal Information”). As we update and expand our products, this policy may change, so please refer back to it periodically. By accessing our website or using our apps and services, you consent to our information practices. This policy was last modified on 20/05/2018

How do we collect information?

We collect information about you when you provide it to us for example when you contact us, place an order, submit a form on our website, use our application, request a call back etc.

Occasionally we may receive information from third parties who we work with for example our service providers or when you have asked other third parties to share your information with us.

What information do we collect?

When using our Applications and Services, we may ask that you provide us some personally identifiable information – information about you that can be used to contact or identify you, and information on your use or potential use of the services and related services.

The app does require you to login.

Information that we might collect includes:

Name, work address, email address, photo, IP address, location data, payment information e.g. bank details, VAT number.

Personal information may also include other information you supply to us concerning your preferences and interests expressed while using the service.

We do not ask you to provide the following Sensitive Personal Information:

Race or Ethnic Origin, religion, political opinions, trade union membership, sexual orientation, health information.

How do we use your Information?

We use Personal Information to: administer our Application & Services, enable you to easily navigate the services, provide, improve and optimize the services, better understand user needs and interests, personalize your experience, provide you with software updates and/or product announcements, and provide you with further information and offers from us that we believe you may find useful or interesting.

When you use our Application & Services, our servers will automatically record information that your mobile device sends or transmits, including, but not limited to, the device ID number, user settings, location and information about your use of the services. We only store, track and monitor general usage and not information specific to any user. We use this information to improve the Services, develop new products and offer products and services that may be of interest to you.

We also use cookies on our Application & Services to collect information. We use cookies to save your preferences and personalize the service for you. Third-party advertisers may also place or read cookies through the Application & Services. You can instruct your device or browser, by changing its options, to stop accepting cookies or to prompt you before accepting a cookie. If you do not accept cookies, however, you may not be able to use all portions or all functionality of our Applications & Services.

What do we use your information for?

Your information, whether public or private, will not be sold, exchanged, transferred, or given to any other company for any reason whatsoever, without your consent, other than for the express purpose of delivering the purchased product or service requested.

We do not share Personal Information with third parties except as follows:

- We may employ third parties to facilitate the Services, to provide the Services on our behalf, to perform related services or to assist us in analysing how our services are used. These third parties have access to your Personal Information only to perform these tasks on our behalf and are not authorized to disclose or use it any other purpose.
- We may share aggregated information that does not include Personal Information and we may otherwise disclose aggregated application usage information with third parties (including suppliers, advertisers, research companies and other organizations) for industry analysis, demographic, profiling and other purposes. Any information shared in these contexts will not contain your personal information.
- We may share Personal Information with other third parties with your consent for example, you may agree to our sharing your information with other third parties to hear about their products and services. Use of the information you agree to share will be subject to those third parties' separate privacy policies.

How long do we keep your Information?

As long as it is necessary considering our legal obligations for example for tax purposes and any other legal basis we have for using your information such as your consent, legitimate interest or while performing a contract with you.

How do we keep your Information secure?

We implement technical and organisational measures to protect your personal information against accidental or unlawful loss, destruction, change or damage. All personal information we collect will be stored on secure servers. All electronic transaction entered via our Website will be protected by SSL encryption technology.

Since transmission of information is not entirely secure over the internet, if you submit any information to us over the internet, it will be entirely at your own risk.

As mentioned in this Privacy Policy, we may disclose your personal data to third parties. Where we do, we require that third party to have appropriate technical and organisational measures in place to protect your personal information; however where we are obliged by law to disclose your personal information to a third party, we will have limited control over how it is protected by that party.

Your rights in respect of your Information

- Right to access your information
- Right to correct/complete your information by providing a supplementary statement
- Right to have your information erased
- Right to receive your Information in a portable format
- Right to object to the processing of your personal information
