The 72 and the Fingerprint of God

Coincidence. Do you believe in it? Do you believe that this actually exists? We must use disambiguation as an honest approach to these questions. We need to clarify what most people are referring to when they say, “coincidence.” Often while telling a story, someone will use the word, “coincidentally...” with sarcastic inflection. Letting the listener know they do not believe this to be, “mere coincidence.” This is what we are discussing and this is what I am referring to, as it is used in this book. An occurrence. That on the surface appears accidental, yet is remarkably well timed. Involving seemingly unrelated factors. So, even though an answer is not clear; are you willing to believe this could happen with no connection and for no reason? Just happenstance.

In Judaism there is no word for, “coincidence.” It is taught everything is allowed to happen under divine permission from within the will of God. This concept is known as Hashgacha Pratis – Divine Providence.

I find this very interesting. This story will show how a series of events that unfolded in my life, have proven to me beyond a shadow of a doubt, that there is no such thing as mere coincidence. The fact that those practicing Judaism do not believe in this either, is comforting and unsettling at the same time. Since, it is these very events that proved this to me. To know that all things are with reason and all things do have meaning. These same things have also proved to me that Jesus Christ always spoke the truth and that he is truly the Son of God, yet Judaism rejects him.

This story has a message from the Father, regarding his only Begotten Son. This is for everyone and these very people. I pray that you receive this message as it was intended and help to spread the truth throughout the entire world. Jesus spoke the truth. Every word.

In order to fully grasp what has been revealed to me, I will start at the very beginning. Leaving out no portion of advancements. So it will start off rather slow. But will ramp up to that more of a textbook, for all that is revealed. I need to express as much as possible, the understanding that this was not just, “given” information. An absolute devotion had to be made so I could become, “in tune” with this message.

Nothing is random. Nothing is chance. Everything is connected.

Jesus spoke only the truth. And he knew that the moment the world heard his words regarding proof of his Messiahship, this truth would be changed. So when the time was right, the truth would be revealed and it would be revealed using numbers. Everything we know is composed of numbers. This is God’s language. God created everything with His words. He created everything from what He is. His words are His truth and therefore; His numbers never lie.

* I need to share my story with you. If it was not for the fact that it ends up involving everyone, it would not be that important that I tell it to you. But, since it does and you are a part of everyone, I will start with you. Actually, I will start with me.

I was born, February 4th, 1972. My very first significant memory took place at age 3. It was an experience that was to give me direction for the rest of my life. It is still perfectly clear.

It was a “vision” of Jesus. That is an easy way to describe it, although not completely accurate. He placed his right hand on my shoulder and said, “Do not fear me.” Throughout my entire life, one thing from this is very clear. Those were not the words created by a 3-year-old child. Thinking of this from time to time, I now realize there was something much more to it.

Jesus was preparing me for what is happening in my life right now. Also from the encounter, I have always known he was real. I have had God in my life always and have prayed in Jesus' name ever since. I am by no means saying that I have always lived a Godly life. I am just stating the fact that I always knew he was real and that I could always count on him.

What my friends never knew as I was growing up, was that I prayed every day. I prayed for my family and friends, ever since I was a small child. One of the greatest gifts a mother can give.

When I became a father, I knew this was what I was to become. Someone that a child would look up to and love and whom they would be thankful for. To be someone that people could depend on and of whom, was to represent the truth. One who was to represent, the Father.

It helps to listen to show we care. Through love, is how we teach.

When my first daughter was to be born in 1992, I told my parents they were going to become grandparents. Before she was born, my dad, my mom and my step-dad all quit drinking. Amazing! Under the circumstances, this was an absolute shock to everyone.

My parents had been divorced since I was a child and though alcohol was not the reason for that, it certainly was a contributing factor in there somewhere. Therefore, at the time I told them, my mom was married to a Vietnam-veteran, biker-dude. Which you can probably visualize a stereotype of “him” drinking right now. As for my dad, he is Catholic and that could say enough right there. Catholics have a prestigious name for their alcoholism, it is called Catholicism. Although everyone was having a great time, all had serious drinking problems. Together they made quite an alcoholic mess. I did not ask them to quit, or even anything like that at all. It just seemed to happen. My mom and step-dad started attending church, too. So if I could, I would not change a thing. This is all exactly how it is supposed to be. I love my parents dearly. As they are both quite wonderful and utmost, incredibly caring of all people. To them I say, “Thank You.”

As for myself, I was a 20-year-old, long-haired, musician/rocker dude that was not even old enough to buy alcohol yet. Needless to say, I was not part of the, “Clean up your Act” movement. My act was just getting started. We have always said, “The Lord works in mysterious ways.” He does indeed.

J.G. Bolfing

I will fast forward 2 children and 19 years into the future.

As a parent I have realized one thing that is of utmost importance. This was made clear from the very beginning. To become a parent means that everything you do, your child will see. As everything you do has become, APPARENT. It is a nice play on words, that carries much weight in simplicity.

That having been said, Thanksgiving weekend 2011, my youngest daughter and I were driving to go stay with my grandmother and I was pulled over for speeding. The speed limit was 70 daytime, 65 nighttime. Being after midnight, 12:45 a.m. to be exact, the speed limit was 65. When I would make this trip after dark, I would use my cruise control and set it on, 72. I know, I was being a bad example. It gets worse. It was a, "No Refusal Weekend." I blew a point 11. That is not much more than a couple of beers, but when you volunteer a blood sample to be a good example of the bad example you are setting, well you give them everything they need for conviction. My daughter that was with me was 12 years old at the time. In my home state, it is a Felony DWI, if a child under the age of 15 is in the vehicle. So WHAM! Take that! And that I did. 3.5 years' probation. I was 39 years old when that happened. I was already planning on not drinking anymore after my 40th birthday. My mom and step-dad were a little younger than my dad, when they all quit. But my dad was 40 when he did, and I liked the thought of giving it up at that age too. It had actually been 3 months since I last drank and I was not a heavy drinker anyway. So the fact that this happened the way it did, well, it was God's plan.

My parents stopped drinking when I told them they were going to be grandparents in 1992. It was 1992 that the law was passed that makes it a felony, if a child passenger is under the age of 15. So it is my opinion, that we were all inspired to quit drinking because of something that was created in 1992.

I don't spend much time speaking of the conviction, because with everything that is going on in my life, it is very clear that God had to get my attention. Without the shaking that He gave me, my life would not be what it is right now and it is better than ever. To be involved with something of this magnitude. Thank you, Father-God.

After almost 2 years into my probation something strange started to happen in my life. I had been working on a proto-type for a project for a few years, Oh, WAIT! I forgot to tell you that I am a 4th generation welder/fabricator. I was 18 when I started at the family business. 23 years' experience at the time this all started. Just about anything that I can dream up worth making, I can make.

So as I was saying, there was a project I had been toying around with for a few years and finally decided to try to sell some. I had spent a whole weekend finishing it up and was thinking about what to call it.

Since my birthday is in 1972, I wanted to name it the 72.
No other reason other than I liked the sound of it, "The 72."

I Googled to see what kind of things that were called the 72. WOW!
I decided rather quickly. If I wanted to name something, "The 72," I could.

The 72 and the Fingerprint of God

When I got home, I jotted down 2 titles in the top header of a yellow notepad. I knew I would have many more. So just to get the thought process started, I put them on the top as if to give my mind a topic for creation.

While I was taking a shower many different ideas for titles were coming to mind. Just as I was about to turn on some evening television, I picked up the notepad, envisioned all that I would write.... and threw it back down on my bedside table. These words came flying out of my mouth, "Dude! Just do it already!"

I am very good at visualizing how things will turn out. I can build whole projects in my mind, to the point of finding problems before I get to them. I saw no problem with all I was envisioning. In my mind, there was nothing left to do. People might call this procrastination. I might agree. So, I picked up the notepad and wrote down all I had left. When I was done I created a, "mock" logo in the shape of the Superman symbol. In the 3 corners there were abbreviations to the product as well. Feeling satisfied, I once again threw it down.

I decided against some TV..... So, let the games begin!

Call of Duty: Black Ops II.

You absolutely need to know that during all this and still to this day, as this is still going on to this day, I am 100% sober. My probation ended, May 31st 2015. I drink water and coffee. No drugs. No alcohol. No prescriptions. No tobacco either. No desire.

My point is that my eyes are wide open. My only addiction is to God and His word. I needed to emphasize that, because I wish to try to explain what it was like when this started. Within the understanding that I was not under the influence of anything but the Holy Spirit. Once God has shown Himself to you, the world you live in will never be the same.

The next day on my way to work, I felt like I was seeing the number 72 all around me. I wish that I could remember the exact moment that I knew, I was indeed seeing it. But, I remember that it did not seem real. My car that I drove was really low, so license plates are right in your face. Oh yeah, I was seeing it in license plates. All the way to the right. Like xxx-xx72. It would be as if it were the year, 1972. Just the 72 though.

Man, I thought I was losing it. I have always looked for signs from God to help me make decisions, but this just seemed crazy. Noticing the 72 everywhere, it was really easy to notice when it stopped. So then, when I realized that it HAD stopped, it started to make me wonder if I was imagining the whole thing. Then it started again. Well, sort of. Now I was seeing 27. This did not make me happy. If seeing the 72 everywhere was God's sign to me to go for it with my project, what in the world was He trying to tell me by showing 27? I wasn't going to sell this thing for 27 bucks, so I had no clue. Then it faded. I say it that way, because that is what it seemed to do. I was seeing 27 one moment then 72. Here is what I did notice rather quickly. The 27 was in the xxx-27xx position. Then, when I would see the 72, it would be all the way to the right. xxx-xx72. There are 1,000's of plates with 27 and 1,000's of plates with 72.

Question - What is behind these numbers?

Answer - People.

Question - What is behind these people?

Answer - The Father.

J.G. Bolting

We are all connected through the Father. We are all connected through His numbers. He spoke the world into existence. His words were sound. Sound is vibration. Vibration is frequency. Frequency is numbers. From the moment you are born you are given numbers. Your birthdate. Social security. Driver license. One that is public for all to see, is your license plate. Though not permanent, it is still very much a visible form of communication. Not only to identify the vehicle, but as a way for information to be communicated to those whose eyes have been opened and have been made chosen to be those that, “see.”

I am not trying to make this philosophical (yet). Just stating a fact. I consider myself very rational as a logically minded individual. With all new information, it should be analyzed and categorized then you can begin to use it. When I started seeing patterns in numbers in license plates, I began to realize how everything we do actually does really matter. If it did not, then all that was happening was a mere coincidence. There is no such thing. As all this was happening in my life, I became completely in tune with what was going on to the point that I could sense when I was going to see a vehicle with the 72. This sounds fantastically ridiculous and illogical. But it is true.

Now, this having been going on for around 1 year and 8 months, (today’s date - September 28, 2015) it is hard to imagine it being any other way. The details of this story are so much fun. But, there are so many. I could go on for hours just talking about the occurrences. So I need to just hit on some key notes.

After a solid week of seeing the 72, I went to see a movie with my daughter. There, at the very beginning of this movie was a license plate, they zoom in on bigger than life and right in my face. I05-7772. Freaked me out! This part of the movie was set in Santa Domingo. To see this on a license plate from another country, just as all this had been going on in my life, I can say at that very moment everything changed. This was way more than a simple communication from the Father. He was showing me something BIG! I am going to start letting you know just how big. This movie was, “Devil’s Due.”

The Antichrist’s spirit is most certainly on the World Stage.

After the movie, I told my daughter about what had been going on that week. She was the 1st person I told about it. She is a Christian, as are both my daughters. So she was very interested in what I was telling her. I believed this to not only actually be happening, but that I felt it was a direct communication from God.

The next day on my way to work, my head was swimming. Seeing the 72 and now knowing there was a message I was to understand. I got to work after seeing the 72 the whole way. My cousin hands me a purchase order and it has 72 all over it! I had to tell him. I blew his mind.

WHAT was happening was not, what was blowing his mind, it was the fact I was even saying it! Ok, I’m just guessing there. But, at the time, for him, I can only imagine.

On my way home, I decided to try to NOT see the 72.

I pull up behind a car at a red light, in the left turn lane. The light turns green and the car in front does not go. As the cars to my right are now moving, I can’t help but notice the car to my right’s plate is, xxx-7473. I laugh and just as I was saying out loud, “It’s a COUNTDOWN” the car in front of me drives away. Now looking straight in front of me, I see the plate. xxx-xx72. Finishing the countdown. Surreal. Totally surreal.

The 72 and the Fingerprint of God

The next day at work, I was telling my aunt about what was happening. Just as I realized something that had not occurred to me before. I could barely wait until I got home. Waiting anxiously all day to get to my house and count the characters on the little yellow notepad.

What do you think I found?

Understand this - When I first wrote on the pad, the 2 titles were in the header margin at the top. When I finished it, I wrote in the body of the page. Then creating a logo and drawing a border around it. The border of the logo separates it from all the titles.

Letters and numbers were all I wanted to count. Hyphens or periods do not apply. Just characters that have meaning. Starting at the top, all the way to, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72.

I could not believe it. I did it again and again.

I counted it 3 times before I knew I was not making it to be, 72.

That it was, 72.

It was then that I realized it was the very next day after creating that page, that the 72 started showing up. It was a week to the day from when it was created, to when I saw it on the Big Screen.

The next big event of bewilderment, I was shopping with my daughter on, Feb. 15th 2014. This date is relevant because, as we were leaving from a parking lot we saw my dad. Ever since I had told my daughter about the 72, she and I would see it together and this had become a source of entertainment for us. As we would be pulling into a parking lot, when we would find somewhere to park, there would be a 72 plate right there. As if that was not enough though, when we would come out of the store, there quite often would be 2 or more cars with 72 that had pulled in after we did. Surrounding my car. It was really strange and pretty funny. So, as I saw my dad pulling in, we were actually taking pictures of all the car's plates. We were about to leave the lot, as I saw my dad. I said to my daughter, "Look! It is your Pat-pa! And it's his birthday too!"

I drove around to where he was parked. There was not a space for me to pull in. We just pulled up behind him. After wishing him, "Happy Birthday!" he asked what we were up to. I told him we were just witnessing the 72 phenomenon. He seemed a little confused, as he did not remember me telling him about this less than 2 weeks before. He had told me previously on separate occasions, about having short term memory loss. I was a little worried as this is not a normal topic of conversation. Then I started thinking that if he HAD remembered me telling him about this, he might have thought that he was now starting to imagine strange conversations as well.

It took a few minutes then he remembered. So I started to tell him now what was becoming increasingly obvious. It was that I was definitely seeing a pattern of the 27 coming before the 72. It would go like this. I would see the 72 for a couple of days or so. It would stop for a day. Then start back up as 27, then fade into the 72. I was telling him just that.

He says, "So, the 27 will come before the 72?"

I was excited that he seemed to be getting it, just as my daughter says, "You mean like THAT?!"

J.G. Wolfing

A car goes creeping past us. Going even less than parking lot speed. The license plate xxx-2772.

My dad says, "There is definitely something supernatural going on here."

Vindication from the heavenly Father, by my earthly father.
It just doesn't get much better than that.

All 3 of us there, my father, my youngest daughter and myself, are all Aquarians. Now, as I am writing this, I literally just realized something equally intriguing.
The sum of our birthdays totaled is 27.

Dad - 15th, mine - 4th, my daughter - 8th.  $15+4+8 = 27$ . Interesting.
With all the examining of all the numbers that I do,
I am surprised I had not noticed that until now.

Let me document some dates. I will explain them more in detail later.

my birthdate - 02/04/1972
date of arrest - 11/26/2011
1st court date - 02/17/2012
the 72 appears - 01/20/2014
date of movie - 01/26/2014

As everything is connected by numbers, dates are numbers often over-looked for their spiritual significance. The significance being the connection of uses and placements in the Holy Bible. As all numbers were created by the Father, I will show how He has used them on both the Hebraic and Gregorian calendars simultaneously as evidence of His direct involvement. Creating some necessary events that have taken place in my life, that are reflected in the pages of His Holy Book.

These numbers are not limited in any, way, shape, form, or fashion.
For numbers fashion, form and shape everything in every way.

Obviously, the Father had got my attention. I just had no idea what I was looking for. So go with what you know. I started with the 72.

Immediately I found the, "72 Names of God" from the Jewish Kabala. I honestly thought that was what He wanted me to find at first. I stared at it a lot. Reading the names as you are supposed to. Thinking some sort of spiritual enlightenment was to take place. I guess what did take place, was spiritual enlightenment, as the Holy Spirit showed me that was not the right thing to do. It was much more I was to be looking for. Rather than personal healing or some gain of correction.

We all need healing. Of that, I am certain. That is why we ask the Father to heal us where we are weak. To have faith that He knows what we truly need. While we might only think, we do.
So I moved on. As I continued my search, something nothing short of amazing took place. I had searched, "1972" again. I saw a link to an article that seemed interesting.
It was titled, "The Mystery of Melchizedek Solved!"

The reason it came up in my search, it was written in 1972.

The 72 and the Fingerprint of God

At first it seemed a bit strange. But, it certainly had credibility. It stated the high priest Melchizedek, was said to have no parents. And was said to have not been born. Nor, would he ever die. Interprets as "King of Righteousness." Also called the King of Salem. Translates as, "King of Peace." Hebrews 7:2

There could be no high priest without knowing who his parents were.
Unless he had not been born and was appointed by, God.

When Jesus died and became our High Priest, it was said,
Hebrews 5:10 "Called of God an high priest after the order of Melchizedek."

Now again, I found this because it was written in 1972. It struck me as being directional. I knew I was getting somewhere. So, I signed up for daily scripture and commentary.

www.cgg.org. Church of the Great God, if you are interested. I highly recommend it. Their explanation of the Holy Spirit and the Trinity is a 7-part series that is well worth your time.

This is where I got the biggest hint as to what I was looking for. I had signed up for emails from cgg.org. I have saved all emails and it was exactly 3 days after reading the first sermon and signing up that I received a sermon titled, "After Three Days." Check it out for yourself. It is pretty clear what needs to be known. Jesus spent exactly, 3 days in the tomb. Just like he said he would. As for this part of the story, do you see how fantastic that is? That, 3 days after signing up, I receive an email titled, "After Three Days." Explaining the time spent in the tomb as an actual 3 days? Which is 72 hours.

This was the beginning of my understanding. What He was wanting to show me was the truth that was always there. But for questionable reasons, had been altered to a shorter time. Why? Why would someone NOT want us to know the truth? The Father is the Truth. If someone does not want you to know the truth, the same is someone who does not want you to know the Father. Jesus Christ was just as the Father. He was the Truth and the Life. He never once was dishonest. He did everything He said, just as He said. Why would the actual time spent in the tomb really matter if we are supposed to just have faith in God? Let me tell you why.

Jesus said we would be given no sign, other than that of the prophet Jonah. Luke 11:29. Which was 3 days and 3 nights in the belly of a whale. Which is 72 hours.

What exactly are we having faith in, if we don't believe,
Jesus did exactly what he said he would do?
And if we believed that he did not, then what of the Father?
Are we only to believe, "some" of what He says?
Or, by saying, "in three days" that Jesus really meant 1½ days? Preposterous!

The 72 hours is the truth. So, what does that mean?
It means that the number 72 is of much importance. It literally represents, "the truth."

Here is a very easy way of illustrating the reason for knowing the 72 hours Jesus spent in the tomb is fact.  $3 \times 24 = 72$ .  $1.5 \times 24 = 36$ . Therefore,  $1.5 \times 24$  cannot = 72, or 3 days.

J.G. Bolfing

John 2:19

Jesus answered and said unto them, Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.

Why would the Father want to teach His children how to do math incorrectly?
When His numbers are perfect and His math cannot tell a lie? He would not.

The 72 is the truth. It is an indicator. It is a locator. It is a designator. It is a place holder. It is a key to the stars in more ways than one. IT IS A SIGN.

I need to interject something here. By no means, am I saying that everything associated with the number 72 is going to be the truth, or is going to be good. Nor, is always going to be of God.

Man-made things of material value are stolen every day.

As for God's creations, they are subject to perversion and misinterpretation or misrepresentation, always. With sole intent of disrespect and defiance for His law.

The rainbow was a sign of a covenant between man and the Father, that He would not destroy the world by flood again. Now it has been hi-jacked to represent homosexuality.

There are many things that I have found that have associated themselves with the number 72, that I do not like. But, I will tell you this.

Just as the Father has used the 72 as a marker for the truth, the enemy will use it as a marker for the opposite. It makes it easy to see, when you know what you are looking for. So at times when you see the 72, it will be used for deception. But, as you know God's truth, this 72 can still be seen to represent just that. The truth that the enemy is out there. Doing whatever it takes to mislead with attempt to corrupt, God's will.

Now that I have said all that, I will repeat where I left off.

The 72 is the truth. It is an indicator. It is a locator. It is a designator. It is a place holder. It is a key to the stars in more ways than one. IT IS A SIGN.

After this had been revealed to me, I had such a feeling of relief. I had believed in God and Jesus my whole life. But, I did not take to organized religion. It was this exact manipulation of the truth that was the root cause of all, I did not like. It bothered me greatly that no one could ever explain the 3 days without it sounding ridiculously awkward and absolutely incorrect. Also, I never understood how a rabbit and colored eggs were supposed to represent the crucifixion and resurrection of our Lord and Savior.

As soon as I knew the 3 days to be factual, I could feel the desire for my faith had become so much stronger than ever before. The Father wanted to show me something.
I wanted to know what it was.

Because of the subject of the crucifixion/resurrection, I feel this is a good opportunity to explain a rather significant and quite extraordinary finding. This discovery actually took place after a full year of the 72 phenomenon. But, as I am typing on this day, (9/29/2015) I am still being shown new and exciting things.

It was just before Passover 2015. Because of everything that was being shown to me, I was compelled to learn about and observe the Feast we should be celebrating instead of Easter. I was reading where Jesus teaches his disciples how to observe the Passover after he was gone.

1 Corinthians 11:26 For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death till he come.

This is where everything became much more focused on the Written Word of God. I noticed something. As I was led to learn and observe the Feast of Passover and the Feast of Unleavened Bread, I was feeling something different than I had before. Like there was something drawing me to this exact verse. The power of these words. For such a simple gesture, we would have observance of his sacrifice for us, forever. Until, his return. So meaningful to understand and yet, it made me sad. That my whole life, this was taken away, until now.

“Why don't Christians know this? Why don't Christians do this?” I wondered.

(I am not referring to what is known as Communion in the Catholic Church. I am referring to a Passover observance, rather than Easter.)

As I sat there in thought, there was a birthday card in an envelope sent to me from my grandmother, setting on the table in front of me. It had been setting there ever since my birthday. 2 months already. I live alone, so this is not unusual for something to set where I last put it for that long. As I sat there reading from the Holy Bible, I notice the verse I am on is the same as my grandmother's address, 11:26. I thought to myself this to be slightly peculiar.

I normally would not be sitting at my dining table reading the Bible. But, because of this, I am now looking at this address and realizing something. I was reading, 1 Corinthians 11:26. My grandmother's address is 1126. Now, running to get my copy of my probation agreement, to see that it was in fact on 11/26, that I was arrested. What?! I was baffled.

I had not one time, ever drove to my grandmother's late at night. As well as never driving there after drinking. It was a, “never in a lifetime” occurrence. I decided to see what other verses there are with 11:26. There are many that carry so much weight. The importance of the 11:26, is hard to deny. There is no other way for this to make any sense, unless I show them all. This is the beginning of a very complex story. If I left anything out, I would be trying to explain things that you did not know. I will start with the New Testament at the back and move forward. This seems odd to do this way, I know. But, it actually was just how I was led to write them down the first time and it fits the delivery very well.

J.G. Bolting

These are King James Version

Hebrews 11:26 Esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt, for he had respect unto the recompence of the reward. (Referring to Moses.)

2 Corinthians 11:26 In journeyings often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils by mine own countrymen, in perils by the heathen, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren; (This is Paul talking about all that he had been through. Notice what is that he says very last. "in perils among false brethren;")

1 Corinthians 11:26 For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death till he come.
(How to observe Christ's death)

Romans 11:26 And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written,
There shall come out of Sion the deliverer, and turn ungodliness away from Jacob:
(Talking about Jesus.)

Acts 11:26 And the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch.
(Last sentence of the verse. Very first mention of believers being called Christians in the Bible)

John 11:26 And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?
(YES! - I hope you are seeing how powerful these one liners can be.)

Luke 11:26 Then goeth he, and taketh to him seven other spirits more wicked than himself; and they enter in, and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first.

(This verse speaks of a man who was rid of an unclean spirit, but he did not stay within the law of God and the unclean spirit returned with seven more, and obviously it turns out very bad for him. This will happen often after an exorcism.)

As this story has much importance for our own protection and necessity for exercising our faith, what occurs here from its placement is keen. We need to see this as relevant.

This is a verse, that is on a number, 11:26. That we have come to find because of a date. 11/26. We have found this verse, because of a number, that the Father used to direct me to the truth. The 72 hours.

So, if we see the verse 11:26, to represent the date 11/26, if you add 72 hours to that you get 11/29.

Let's go to Luke 11:29 and see what we find.

Luke 11:29 And when the people were gathered thick together, he began to say, This is an evil generation: they seek a sign; and shall no sign be given it, but the sign of Jonah the prophet.

You get that? If the 11:26 were a date, as we were directed there from a date, 3 days later is 11/29, or verse 11:29. Jesus speaks of the very same 3 days. The 72.

The 72 and the Fingerprint of God

Mark 11:26

But if ye do not forgive, neither will your Father which is in heaven forgive your trespasses.
(This is certainly a very important verse for all of us. For me, very relevant.)

Matthew 11:26 Even so, Father: for so it seemed good in thy sight.

(This one, I guess you could say I am taking out of context. Because, I associate it with the verse from before. It fits very well.)

Now on to the Old Testament:

Daniel 11:26 Yea, they that feed of the portion of his meat shall destroy him, and his army shall overflow: and many shall fall down slain.

(I don't want to get too prophetic here, but there are a few things I have found in the Old Testament that I feel could be a parallel of what is happening in the United States. It seems there is becoming a strong, yet unseen, political division. That could lead to war inside our borders.)

Proverbs 11:26 He that withholdeth corn, the people shall curse him: but blessing shall be upon the head of he that selleth it.

(This could easily tie into what I was saying before. We have no idea what is to become in the future of our country, or the world for that matter. But, one thing is for sure. We must eat.)

Nehemiah 11:26 And at Jeshua, and at Moladah, and at Bethpheet

(See addendum page 131. )

1 Chronicles 11:26 Also the valiant men of the armies were, Asahel the brother of Joab, Elhanan the son of Dodo of Bethlehem, (I wish I knew more about these men, because it pertains to the 11:26 mystery. The first 2 mentioned after the stories of the top 3 of David's 30 Mighty Men. The top 3 had what appears to be almost super-human abilities.)

1 Kings 11:26 And Jeroboam the son of Nebat, an Ephrathite of Zereda, Solomon's servant, whose mother's name was Zeruah, a widow woman, even he lifted up his hand against the king.

(This is one of the verses I feel is prophetic of a possible future event. After Solomon's death, there was a division of the children of Israel. Jeroboam was the first king over the northern Israelite Kingdom of Israel. He reigned over 10 tribes for 22 years. Obviously, we would have to find out who the players are. As we have no king. As of yet.)

2 Samuel 11:26 And when the wife of Uriah heard that her husband Uriah was dead, she mourned for her husband.

(This woman is Bath-sheeba. Her husband's death was King David's doing. He sent him to a battle where he knew that he would die. This was the only thing that King David had done that displeased the Lord. David married Bath-sheeba. Their first illegitimate child died. She again became pregnant and gave birth to Solomon.)

J.G. Bolting

Judges 11:26 While Israel dwelt in Heshbon and her towns, and Aroer and her towns, and in all the cities that be along by the coast of Arnon, three hundred years?

Why therefore did you not recover them within that time?

(This is not my intention to try in prophesy here. It is just that the Bible is full of prophecy and history repeats itself.)

Deuteronomy 11:26 Behold, I set before you this day a blessing and a curse.

(Ok, I don't want to get obnoxious here. But, DID YOU CATCH THAT!??)

One more time. Behold, I set before you THIS DAY a blessing and a curse.

One more. Behold, I set before you “on 11/26” a blessing and a curse.

Did you get it that time? On the very verse that I was led to, because of an event that happened on that day, it literally says THIS DAY. That's fantastic! I need to elaborate a bit more here.

It was this finding where I knew beyond a shadow of a doubt, that God was showing me something. It seemed like it before, but everything that my life is right now, began on that day.

Numbers 11:26 But there remained two of the men in the camp, the name of the one was Eldad, and the name of the other was Medad: and the spirit rested upon them; and they were of them that were written, but went not out unto the tabernacle: and they prophesied in the camp.

(This one is very mysterious. First off, I want to point out that these 2 elders, were a part of 70 other elders who were gathered around the tabernacle, all of whom were overcome by the Spirit of God and they did prophesy.

Let's do some math.  $70 + 2 = 72$

Next thing, if the children of Israel were speaking Spanish, this might be easy to see as relevant. But, as they obviously were not, it is funny to say the least.

El dad and Me dad. That is, “the Father” and, “my Father.”

Regardless of what dialect is being inferred here, it is obvious they were overcome by the, Holy Spirit of the Father.

Leviticus 11:26 The carcases of every beast which divideth the hoof, and is not cloven-footed, nor cheweth the cud, are unclean unto you: everyone that toucheth them shall be unclean.

(This is saying pork is a no-no.)

Genesis 11:26 And Terah lived seventy years, and begat Abram, Nahor and Haran.

(This is the very first use of 11:26 in the Holy Bible and it is used for the first mention of Abraham. This was before God renamed him. As he was named Abram when he was born. This is very significant as Abraham, Isaac and Jacob are known as the Patriarchs of Judaism.)

The 72 and the Fingerprint of God

Let me back up to Deuteronomy 11:26.

26 Behold I set before you this day a blessing and a curse;
27 A blessing, if ye obey the commandments of the LORD your God, which I command you this day: 28 And a curse, if ye will not obey my commandments of the LORD your God, but turn aside out of the way which I command you this day, to go after other gods, which ye have not known

This is very powerful here. It is very easy for me to feel secure in my decision for a blessing.
As, I would never turn away from the LORD my God. For any reason.

So, there is more. As my teachings pursued, my progress would make bounds in discovery.
Each week something new. With a new finding, a new clue. It was surreal all that was taking place. I had an idea. I researched the date of my arrest, using a website called HEBCAL.com.
It converts the Gregorian calendar to the Hebraic. Or vice-versa. I put in the date of my arrest.
11/26/2011. What I found stunned me. I just thought things were hard to believe before, now this.

The date 11/26/2011, is the 29th day of the month of Cheshvan, on the Hebraic calendar. It just so happens to be a holiday celebrated by the Ethiopian-Jewish community.

Sigd - meaning “prostration” or “worship.”

Exactly 50 days after Yom Kippur and is believed to be the day God revealed himself to Moses.

So, the day of my arrest that started all this in my life.
The very day that God gave me a solid shaking to get my undivided attention.
That also happens to be the same exact numbers as the address I was going to.
That seems to have a Bible chapter/verse connection.
When translated into a date on the Hebraic calendar, which is actually God's calendar,

.... just so happens to be a day celebrated by the Ethiopian-Jewish community to be the day,
GOD revealed himself to Moses! COINCIDENCE???

There is more. I was born in 1972.
All this is happening because of my connection through my birthdate. 2/4/1972

11/26/2011 on the Hebraic calendar is - the 29th of Cheshvan 5772.
So that date during the year of 2011, on the Hebraic calendar is the year 72 for the century.
There is no such thing as COINCIDENCE.

My birthday, 2/4/72 is actually a word in Hebrew. 2472 is chalom. It means - a dream.

A dream would be the best way to describe how this felt for so long. Now, I am fully aware of the line of communication and I am looking for the next clue always. He told us to, “Watch.”
What I would like to tell you next is how I came to realize there was something to my birthdate.

Alignment

This was over the holidays of 2012. I received an awesome case of some type of, “flu/strep” combo as a gift and I was enjoying it over a two-day marathon of, “End-Time” conspiracy theory videos on YouTube. Trying to figure out why the world did not end, December 21st 2012. You know you did it too! Ok, maybe you didn't. But, somehow I got swept up in that mess. The problem for me was the fact that it had nothing to do with Bible prophecy. Maybe, Planet-X could be seen as Wormwood, but still. It did not fit. So, in my delirium, I watched just about every video available on the topic of the Antichrist and Doomsday stuff. Maybe, not all. Let's just say, “Enough.” I was just letting them run from one to the next. I would pass out during one video and wake back up in the middle of another. I had a 102 fever, so to say I was coherent might have been hit and miss. But, I heard someone say something that woke me up. I stopped the video and backed it up. I let it play and there it was. I backed it up again. I could not believe the words this man was saying, were actually coming out of his mouth. I played it again one more time. Here I was, with a 102 fever. Throat so swollen, I could not swallow. Chills. Aches and pains. Yet, somehow this man's words actually made me feel worse.

Those words were,.....

The 72 and the Fingerprint of God

I hope that what you have read so far, is enough to allow a strong sense of intrigue, as to what this story might actually contain. What you must know more than anything else, about what you have just read, is this;

it is only just the beginning.

There is so much more information that was shown, revealed by the Holy Spirit, eye-opening and awakening information, that everyone should see. To be observed, scrutinized and tested for its accuracy. For there will come a day, when everything that has been revealed, will be known.

As you read through the story and see how it all comes together, as it is revealed piece by piece, it becomes clear that this was by an exact design, allowing comprehension for the complexity involved in fabricating such a message. That by no means, could any man be responsible for the design of such a creation. It is from the beginning of my life that this, my personal connection, becomes traceable and by this connection the pieces were made perceivable. Therefore, allowing me to see them as they were meant to be seen, so that they may have been found accordingly. As they were meant to be, falling perfectly into place.

This connection I am referring to, is a number you come to know throughout the story, as it is produced from my date of birth. The timing for this information's unveiling, as it is to be newly released into the world we know in 2016, this is by no means coincidental. God has given all this information, with these details, so that we're able to make this connection. He has chosen a different path for our nation and He wants us to know this. So, this number I am referring to, is a very significant number connected to the Republican party of our government. Only after you have read the story and have come to know this number, as it is entwined within the complexities of this message, is one able to ascertain that the probabilities of this, "occurrence" being just a, "fluke" are astronomically slim and unequivocally improbable. One more connection to this message that is credible and extremely relevant, is the date our Heavenly Father chose to manifest this knowledge into a tangible reality. Governed by His Holy Spirit, to orchestrate within my life a design with an authority Ordained by God. Was in fact, on the very same date, that a new POTUS assumes his role as Commander in Chief. It is also very important to note, that before this revelation was made regarding our Heavenly Father's obvious intention for a regime change, was the revelation for "what" He is ready to remove. You have got to read the rest of this story, so you will come to believe and know, that through no other means, could any such information, without the methods for how it was attained, be accepted, as a deliverance by God. So, understand this, if I had not been aware of this first, the connection to the Republican party may not have seemed relevant. But as all this information ties together, it is certainly meant to be shown. It is because of the exact number I am referencing, my date of birth, that this has become to be known.

This was God's plan for this book. The rest of the story conveys this in much detail. That there is no way this would have seen any such light, without His divine permission and under the direction of His Holy Spirit. Just as by the grace of God, we have been given all that we need through His Only Begotten Son, Jesus the Christ; we have the Truth. So all that you will learn, from the entirety of this manuscript, is something that we will all, so have. So be it.
