I am a mother to 7 beautiful children and wife to one seriously supportive and patient man. We met while jogging in the rain 17 years ago and have weathered many storms since.

I love all things creative and hope to show others that we are all born with an innate desire to be creative in some way. I enjoy sharing my love for motherhood and the ways I find peace within our active home full of individuals. I love people and I have been blessed throughout my life to be surrounded by the very best kind. I am drawn to bright colors, polka dots, folk music, antiques, sunshine, dirt roads, rodeos, and twinkling lights. I work in many creative mediums such as quilting, painting, watercolor, embroidery, writing, photography, memory keeping, leather-craft, and picking through garage sales.

I've walked through a few intense and painful struggles in my life and I am here to share about the journey, the joy, the healing and the love. I've found ultimate joy and peace in family life and motherhood. I love to give encouragement for families and for mothers. I believe that parenthood is intended to be joyful and fun and peaceful.

At a critical point in my journey I connected with Brave Girls Club and have become a Certified Soul Restoration Instructor. I love teaching this curriculum and hope you will come see what it is all about!
