ABOUT US

Globe-Trotting Travel Agency is making footprints around the world. GTT wants to be your personal travel consultant. From the moment you contact one of our travel experts, your satisfaction, security and comfort are our main priority. We offer you:

Personalized Services:

Your dedicated travel consultant takes the time to get to know you and those who will be traveling with you, the purpose of your trip and what could make your trip better?

Your consultant will always strive to do more in order to give you a wonderful travel experience.

Custom Solutions:

We will try to meet any special needs that you may have. Such as, the need for an English-speaking tour guide, Private transportation, Wheelchair or other devices to make travel more comfortable for you or a member of your party. With our connections to ground operations around the world, GTT will do its best to access the most reliable providers at your destination.

Connections:

We have resources that covers most concerns. We can help expedite passport and visa services, offer solutions for savings on international travel and much more. Our travel consultants have the knowledge, experience and contacts that most providers do not have and they use them to your benefit. GTT offers special rates at select hotels around the world.

Economically:

We are able to offer the most competitive pricing in luxury travel along with special value-added amenities that you receive at no additional cost. These include complimentary room upgrades, airport transfers, special dining experiences, exclusive shore itineraries, custom itineraries and more.

Travel Clubs

GTT has several travel clubs:
Motorcoach Travel Club, Cruising Travel Club,
Family, Fun & Adventure Travel Club and our International Travel Club.

Each club meets only twice a year:

1. Their initial meeting is to select, where the club will travel.
2. Their final meeting is thirty days before departure of their trip for a meet & greet and to receive all travel documents.

Club members make weekly or monthly installments (their choice) towards their annual vacation package; relieving them of any financial strain when balances are due.

Family Reunions

GTT can assist you in planning your next Family Reunion. Family Reunions are now popular on cruise ships, major amusement parks, and in different cities, where family groups utilizes motorcoaches to travel on.

Weddings

Allow GTT to assist you in planning for that very special day, which can take place on a beautiful Island in the Caribbean, Hawaii, or Greece. Our agency can also arrange the travel and lodging plans for your wedding party and guests.
