

If you're wondering about our vibrant new band posters and web postings, read on. Delta fork artist Cliff Speaks has given us permission to use his art for our social media postings and posters. Cliff's colorful folk art embodies the essence of the Delta blues and its culture and also captures the noisy and lively atmosphere of a smoky blues night club with its spirited patrons and musicians. Cliff, who is from Brandon Mississippi, is a talent artist and blues fan who's dedicated to keeping the Blues and it's culture alive with his paintings. You can learn more about Cliff or send him a friend request at these websites.
