Peace Talks

Luke 7:36f When one of the Pharisees invited Jesus to have dinner with him, he went to the Pharisee's house and reclined at the table. A woman in that town who lived a sinful life learned that Jesus was eating at the Pharisee's house, so she came there with an alabaster jar of perfume. As she stood behind him at his feet weeping, she began to wet his feet with her tears. Then she wiped them with her hair, kissed them and poured perfume on them.

We have a children's program that is conducted the first three Sundays of the month during our worship assembly.

It is especially designed for children 4 to 9 years old. If you desire, have your child follow the other children upstairs at the end of our communion service. There is an attended nursery downstairs for infants and children up to 4 years old in room B-7. For your peace of mind, paggers are available so you can be contacted if your child needs you. Our ushers will assist you with finding the correct room.

A very special thank you to all that volunteered to help this week with preparing food, cleaning, security or serving as a hostess. An extra special thank you to Buzz for coordinating the week and Gayle Anderson for coordinating all the meals. Couldn't have done this week without you. Our Family Promise families left this morning, heading to another church for the week. Keep these families in your prayers as they strive to becoming self-sufficient and becoming able to live in a place of their own.

Our next opportunity to serve families of Family Promise will be October 15-21, 2017.

Family, this week during family promise we had eight school age children.

Margaret Livermore purchased back packs & school supplies for each of these children and their specific school lists. The total cost of the supplies was $500.00. This is quite a bit for one family to handle. If you can make a donation toward the supply cost, see Margaret Livermore or Cecil Walker.

Kids are heading back to school and the business of summer is winding down which means it's time to resume our Life Groups. If you are interested in leading a life group contact Chad. He is coordinating this ministry and will be posting a list of life groups soon.

End of Summer Family Celebration and Back Yard BB-

Q... Wednesday evening, August 30th. The fun begins at 5:00 PM. Chad will have a water slide for the kiddo's along with other games for children and adults to enjoy. Hamburgers and Hotdogs will be provided. Everyone bring a side dish to share. Dinner will begin at 6:00 PM. Help is always needed for set-up and especially clean-up.
