

Born into a family with an aristocratic father and a non aristocratic mother, Sascha grew up as a princess without castle in Austria. Her family owns a little house in the alps on a lake, that is surrounded by high mountains, where she still always loves to go back to. After studies of art therapy, art history and theatre at Vienna, Sascha spent a year in Paris, travelled all over Europe and the US and now resides in Brooklyn with her husband and her 8 year old daughter. She is working as an hospital artist-in-residence at a cancer center doing art with the patients.
