San Fernando Valley Chapter

“Tis the season” to get out and ramble around to look at Christmas lights and holiday displays. Also, it is a grand time to waltz to Frank Sinatra’s “The Christmas Waltz” recorded in 1954 or jive to another American popular Christmas song, also recorded in 1954, the “Jingle Bell Rock,” and to read the story “Recrowning of Two Queens” and to share that story with pictures.

Queen Deanna Stanton

Queen Leanne Wong

The Recrowning of Two SFV Queens: It all started with a drive, for those nearby and those far away to an afternoon T42 Reception at the home of Les and Roberta LaZar with Ava, one of the Ladies of the Crowns, bouncing in the back seat. The reception was a wonderful mix of warm hospitality, lovely sandwiches, dainty cookies, fruit, and of course, tea that completed the bountiful feast. All the reigning queens were there except Queen Kay Boyer who was ill and greatly missed. As a keepsake to the reigning Queens, each selected a teacup. Every teacup was different and beautifully wrapped with goodies for the trip home. Following the Reception, the Queens headed to the dance studio for the Coronation rehearsal, a quick rest and change of clothes for the evening Coronation.

With the Queens and their escorts dressed and the studio transformed into an elegant royal palace, the Coronation was underway. The procession was fun and lively with Emcee and Master of Music, Mark Emanuelli introducing each Queen and her escort and sharing her favorite place to enjoy tea. Following the recessional Queens-elect, Deanna and Leanne, with their escorts and friends Jane and Doug Hammond performed their Coronation Tribute Dance to “Celebrate Me Home.” The show dance was not only beautifully choreographed and performed, it was also colorful with costumes made by Queen Leanne Wong. Following the Tribute Dance, State and Fresno Chapter Queen Lynn Sanders crowned Queens-elect Deanna and Leanne with their special tiara carried by the Ladies of The Crowns, Ava and Harper. Next was the Queens’ waltz, the procession, photos of the Royal Court on the staircase, everyone enjoying a lovely buffet dinner and dancing some more!

With the clock nearing eleven SFV Board President, Gee Gee Barden closed the evening by giving special thanks to the queens, and their escorts, as well as those in their chapters and our dance community friends and members, for supporting the coronation of Queens Deanna and Leanne. Gee Gee then presented Coronation Chair, Rachel Seward with an original watercolor painted by her.

Farewells were made the next morning at a champagne breakfast at the Airtel Hotel.

This story ends with Queens Deanna and Leanne giving thanks to the many people involved in the making of their wonderful evening. Special thanks go to Deborah Fields-Perez from By Your Side Dance Studio for her lovely choreography for the Tribute Dance and to Jane and Doug Hammond for their friendship and dancing. Thanks go to Les and Roberta for hosting the afternoon tea reception, to Yelena for her wonderful studio; to Gee Gee Barden, Joan Robinson, Hannah Murray, Sally, and Mark Emanuelli and to Rachel Seward who created the most amazing table decorations and room décor – Queen Leanne said “you made my dreams come true.” Queen Deanna thanks Joseph for sharing in this next years dance adventures and Queen Leanne thanks her husband, John Wong, for being willing to venture on the dance road again with her.

Palomar Chapter

edited by Debbie Kincaid and Don Hubbard

Our Harvest Ball was a beautiful way to end our year's activities. It was well organized by Debbie Atherton, Elliott and Linda Lum and Marion Semler; We all enjoyed the effort that went into our beautiful table decorations! Of course, a special thank you to George & Miriam Mozes for their guidance of all set-up preparations! The evening started with a delicious dinner, catered by Ciao Restaurant of Vista; then as usual, lots of dancing with two mixers. Our Holiday 'Showtime' included performances by the following local dancers: Queen Elect Catherine Lombardi and husband Frank danced a well-choreographed medley of Foxtrot, Greek dance steps, and the Night Club 2-Step. Len and Peggy Lee, with Peggy in her flowing green and black gown, danced an elegant Waltz. San Diego's Chuck DiSessa and Lucy Bilyavska, gave us a lively Foxtrot performance choreographed by Mary Murphy! Peter and Marsha Hansen performed a stylish & romantic Bolero. 64 dancers attended and included 12 welcomed friends from San Diego NSD.

costumes including Masquerade Ball attire! He is an avid reader, has a talent for singing (Tenor), is an ardent runner and faithfully goes to the gym. Mario is really motivated about adding dance to his repertoire! Welcome Mario!

Our Coronation Ball, honoring Queen Catherine Lombardi was, as the title implied, an affair of "Grecian Dreams". Coronation Chair Gerry Deutsch's organization and planning made for a smooth operation for the entire afternoon and evening. When congratulated for work well done, she said "I would like to thank all of the members who worked so hard to make this a wonderful celebration".

A few words from our new Queen Catherine Lombardi!

It is such an honor to represent PSD as your Queen. Thank you, Geri, for being the Coronation Chair...could not have been done without you and Marion, who, also, once again, chaired the decorations for the arch & ballroom. The Hospitality Chairs et al, 'nailed it' as well. I feel so much gratitude to the awesome team of creative individuals who worked so hard to bring my theme

MEMBER SPOTLIGHT – MARIO LIRA

by Debbie Atherton.

I had the pleasure of interviewing an extraordinary young man who recently joined our Palomar Smooth Dancers Chapter, Mario Lira. He came to us via Josh Tiegen who has been one of our Dance Hosts for several years now. Mario is new to Ballroom Dancing and thanks Penny Elliott for her patience and diligence in bringing him to a point where he can now compete! Mario was born and raised in Texas; at 18 he joined the Marines which allowed him later to get two degrees, one in Retail Marketing and the other in Human Behavior. He put these degrees to good use when in joined Disney and became involved in their Entertainment Costuming Department in Anaheim, CA. He has been working with Roddenberry Entertainment where he worked on Star Trek and video sales Department and Costuming. At this year's Star Trek 2018 Convention he proudly costumed Jonathon Scott of the Property Brothers, for a skit he did with William Shatner (Captain Kirk!). Married 35 years to Beverly with a daughter, Rhiannon, 30 years old. His hobbies include making articulate “Grecian Dreams” to fruition. The food at Hospitality included Baklava; Greek/English signage; themed costumers; even a 5’X7’ Greek Villa photo op! Thank you to Peggy & Len Lee for the Honor Dance performed to “Watermark”. It was beautiful! Frank & Jennifer Lacson, SDSD Chapter, epitomized two unforgettable dances; both showed their fun personality and flexible dance acumen. Thank you! The Queens from the other NSD Chapters were such good sports to enter the Ballroom doing modified Greek dance steps to “Miserlou.” The day and night were so amazing. The next morning, our Queens’ breakfast was at El Camino Country Club...Thank you Debbie.

Queen Marion Semler sends you all a farewell message: I embarked on this journey with excitement, anticipation and nervousness, wondering how I had allowed myself to say yes to being queen for a year. It is such an honor and I hoped to be able to fulfill my duties with the grace and elegance required. Every coronation was so unique and beautiful in it’s own way and I was very happy to become a part of this wonderful sisterhood. There were many lovely memories along the way and the highlight of my year has to have been the convention in Fresno. At every event, the support of my fellow Palomar members was outstanding and so very much appreciated. I am delighted to welcome Queen Catherine to the Crown Circle and I am sending her my sincere best wishes as she begins her reign.

Merry Christmas and happy holidays to everyone
Let's start with some of my favorite holiday jokes..

1. What do you get when you cross a snowman and a vampire?..Frost Bite
2. What do snowmen eat for breakfast?..Frosted Flakes or Ice Crispies
3. How did the ornament get addicted to Christmas?.. He was hooked on trees his whole life.
4. What do you call a broke Santa Claus?..Saint-nickel-less
5. Lastly, What part of the body do you only see around Christmas?..The mistletoe

Now that we have you in a jovial mood..lets follow Chuck and Susan Johnson down the Mississippi river. The food was Great and stories about Mark Twain in his home town of Hannibal, MO were delightful.

One of the most Art Deco stlye Paramont ballrooms in Shanghai was decorated by our very own Judi Van Brocklin. She danced at a tea dance with multiple dance hosts. There was also a large video screen at the end of the ballroom with Fred Astaire dancing films.

Next trip was with our dance instructors Ken and Marion Scholtz. They taught beginning ballroom on the Vision of the Seas in November on a 16 night sailing from Miami to LA through the Panama Canal.

Debby Ku, Victor Lee and Chuck and Susan Johnson are cruising again on Crystal Symphony.Right now they are in Bimini.

Craig and Alice Mah Miller along with Emily Lee and Tia Squire cruised to the Canary Islands. They enjoyed Spain, Portugal, Morocco , and two Canary Islands. They had an exceptional time getting to know each other better during the cruise.

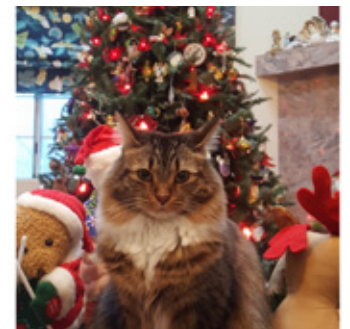

Ahh , Octoberfest in Munich, Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart museum and Chocolada Edel-vollmilch was not to be missed in Salzburg. Then by rail to Vienna, these were experienced by Tom and Sandy Wells while touring by Train.

Dancing news: Robert and his teacher Kim, participated in the recent Hollywood Danceport championships in early November. They were finalists in all five international ballroom dances

Black and White Anniversary Ball, November 3, 2018

by Liz Tarnove

Approximately 125 people attended this social, celebrating our 69th anniversary as a chapter.

The ballroom looked particularly elegant with a majority of guests in black and white gowns or suits. But with an extra special menu, elegant black-and-white decorations, Al Folkman doing DJ duties, and lots of dancing, the evening was as magical in enjoyment as it was in appearance.

Latiffah and Patrick McGinness along with Marty Freihofer and Cindy Perry performed the cool moves of Bachata as taught in September's dance class series by Serena Cuevas. Latiffah announced that Serena would be returning in September 2019 for another series of dance classes.

Later in the evening, Latiffah lead the Chicken Dance and a Foxtrot line dance to "New York, New York" both of which had been featured in the recent Fresno NSD convention. In addition to the entertainment and novelty dances, the event included three mixers.

President Frank Lacson thanked Denise White for her two years of service being the Social Dance Person of SDSD. Denise and Lou spent much of the evening in the kitchen making sure the food and drinks were replenished and plentiful.

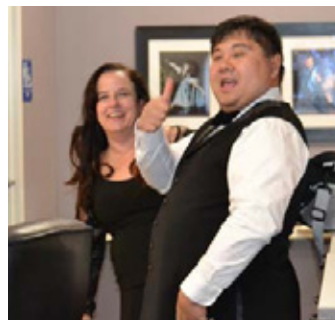

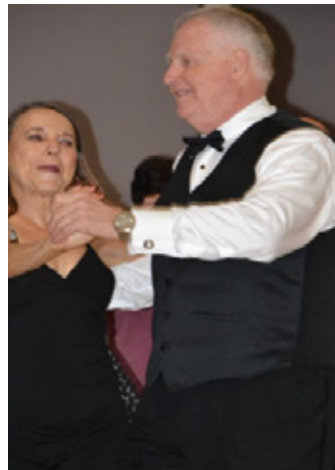

David Saul, our chapter historian, sent along a scrapbook showing documents and photos from the earliest days of our chapter. It added a sense of the chapter's long history for those of us who were not long-time members.

As always, the event would be impossible to put on without the help of our members. Special thanks to Marty Freihofer, Ji Kenworthy, Les Forare, Cindy Perry, and Amante Reyes for help setting up the tables and chairs. The set-up team, with the addition of Maria Wilson, Kay Ryan, Ann Meador, Marcia Rainey, and Liz Tarnove, set out the decorations.

President Frank Lacson thanked Denise White for her two years of service.

Nancy Ross and Kay did reception and check-in. Amante Reyes set up the champagne fountain and took more than 150 photos during the evening. Lou Reyes, Latiffah McGinness, Ji Kenworthy, Alicia Alexander, and Cindy Perry each took home some of the black tablecloths to launder.

Bakersfield Chapter

True Confession: I own more than 50 dresses. When I sheepishly confessed this to a long-time member of smooth dancers (who shall remain nameless), I learned that some ladies have entire closets dedicated to ballroom attire! Whether it's long gowns, tiaras, and tails or poodle skirts and fedoras, one of the best parts of ballroom dancing is the ability to transport into another world.

rented a large van and headed north to San Francisco for the Gala Autumn Viennese Waltz Ball in the Grand Ballroom of Hotel Whitcomb. The San Francisco Waltzing Society hosts this white-tie event in homage to the balls of Vienna with a 30-piece orchestra and strict waltz tempo music especially arranged for the event, and a 5-piece band plays live music for other ballroom dances. This year set a record with 160 dancers. Smooth Dancer, James Schmitz, who organized the Bakersfield contingent described the scene: "We participated in a qadrille. It was like being on a movie set. All level of dancers were there, and you have never heard so many familiar Viennese Waltzes played live." Asked if he would go again, the answer was an enthusiastic "YES!"

Generosity was the theme of the evening as several tables filled with Bakersfield Smooth Dancers showed their support at the annual Bakersfield Chinese Women's Club Scholarship Fundraiser. Dinner and dancing accompanied silent and live auctions to provide deserving students with college scholarships.

Golden Gate Chapter

John Anzalone

The day before Thanksgiving, John Anzalone passed away. He had not been doing well for a few years, however, whenever you saw John at a dance or meeting, he would tell you he was doing just fine. John loved to help with the Golden Gate Smooth Dancers, and will be greatly missed as a valuable member of our chapter.

Gabrielle von Stephens shared the following about her recent travels...

On September 5th I travelled to Nice to visit Karen, a friend of mine at her beautiful condo on the French Riviera. We spend a week exploring her little town Beaulieu, and a romantic medieval town called Eze. We took a 20-minute train ride to Italy to go grocery shopping and have lunch, and a 20-minute car ride to see fabulous Monaco. We went to the beach in Beaulieu-sur-mer and, of course, went shopping.

My trip continued on to my college town Heidelberg, Germany where I met my daughter, her husband, granddaughter and grandson, as well as Lynn Sanders from Fresno chapter and Shirley McCloskey from San Diego chapter who were travelling in Germany at the same time. After a few incidents with the monstrous car I had rented (big car, small streets, sensors all around and beeping all the time), we walked all over Heidelberg. We took a wonderful boat ride on the Neckar river and enjoyed wine and food, which I repeated when Karen from France arrived for the last 4 days of my stay in Heidelberg. I also spent a wonderful weekend in Riquewihr and Colmar, Alsace with my daughter and granddaughter.

For the first time in all these years of going home to Germany, I did not want to come back to the US, but here I am. -Gabrielle.

New Year's Eve Eve (December 30, 2018)

We will be having our annual NYEE dance at the Crowne Plaza in Foster City. Cost is $95 per person. Parking is free for the dance, and those spending the night. Please make reservations by December 14, 2018. Rooms are available at a rate of $129 (plus taxes). Flyers are available on our website: www.goldengatedancers.org.

Queen Elizabeth Li's Travels

The Palomar Coronation "Grecian Dreams" started with a hospitality with many interesting snacks. Among them, blue chocolate in different shapes of crowns and baklava with little Greek flags deserve honorable mention. After the hospitality, we went to our hotel to change for the coronation. As Carl and I dressed up and walked out of the hotel, people congratulated us, since they thought that we were getting married. It was no time to explain, so we smiled back and said "thank you!" A gorgeous dance, "I have a dream", was performed by Palomar's new queen, Catherine Lombardi, and her husband Frank. Frank and Jennifer Lacson, from San Diego chapter performed exhibition dances. Their dances were beautiful and full of passion. They have been competing in different states. The whole evening everything ran smoothly, due to the hard work by Geri Deutsch, Peggy Lee, Carol Kimmitt, and Ann Mauro - Coronation Chairpersons, along with other Palomar chapter members. During Sunday breakfast, I sat next to Queen Catherine and had opportunity to get to know her a little more. She was born into a Greek family, thus the Grecian Dreams theme.

The San Fernando Valley Coronation, "T-4-2" started with hospitality at the home of Roberta and Les LaZar. Carl and I arrived at their home 15 minutes early. We both started to help with setting up the hospitality snacks. Every reigning queen got to pick a tea cup and saucer set from a table holding different sets. I picked up a set with patterns of pink roses. The coronation hall and tables were beautifully decorated by Rachel Seward and her team. Each table had different teapots as center pieces. The ceremony started with the entrance of the State Queen, Lynn Sanders, escorted by Les LaZar. Followed by the chapter queens and their escorts. Both queen elects, Leanne Wong and Deanna Stanton, entered room together - it was a tea for two. Jane and Doug Hammond joined with Leanne accompanied by John Wong and Deanna accompanied by Joseph Hidalgo, and danced a gorgeous Waltz routine. After the dance, both queen elects were crowned by the State Queen. After the coronation ceremony, buffet dinner and general dancing followed. The food was very good, which was catered by a company used by Bakersfield chapter. The catering company sent 3 people with a food truck. They prepared dinner for 75 people, very impressive. Sunday breakfast was at the Airtel Plaza Hotel. They have a very nice patio for breakfast for our group of 27 people, however, our conversations got interrupted by airplanes taking off and landing, as we were next to the Van Nuys airport. I sat with Queens Cathy Lombardi, Jeri Deutsch, Marion Semler, and Franci Solano. I also got to spend time chatting with Queen Leanne Wong. Leanne is a teacher who helps mentally challenged adolescents. She loves travel and visiting her grandchildren in Sacramento.

Visalia Chapter

For the last couple of months, Visalia Smooth Dancers celebrated three of their most memorable Social Dances of the year; our 43rd Anniversary Dance was held on October 20th, our November Social Dance which was dedicated to our Veterans was held on November 10th and our Christmas Dance which was celebrated on December 1st.

David and Carol Bixler, Mary Short

Our 43rd Anniversary Dance was celebrated with a “Masquerade Ball” theme. In total, over 80 members and guests attended. This was a good time to recognize our members especially our Lifetime members for continuing to support our club. Most of the ladies arrived with concealing beautiful masks and dresses. The “best mask” contest was awarded to David Bixler for his “exotic” look. The guests were entertained by an outstanding come back performance from Bill and Lona Dolan.

November 10th Social Dance “Honoring Our Veterans Dance” by Stan Medina

Marivel Villareal and our guest, Frank Aguiar’s daughters, Hannah and Hailey.

In honor of our remembrance of all Military Veterans, our committee readied the hall with flags, WWII posters, a display of Cheryl Levitan’s Service uniform, artistic stars, and a display explaining the meaning of cloth “Star Emblems” that are hung in a window for all to see. Also displayed was a poem of the origin of the Poppy pins, with a Poppy for every attendee to pin over their hearts. A Wall of Heroes was also on display featuring the photos of many of our own veterans in the prime of their youth. Two photos featured servicemen we have lost but will never be forgotten, Tom Moholt and Jared Verbeek (Marivel’s nephew).

A nice send off for the Holiday Season, our Christmas Dance celebration was held on December 1st with the theme “A Christmas Miracle”. As VSD’s tradition, the dinner tables were beautifully decorated by members with their own ideas on Miracles of Christmas. We had breathtaking entertainment by “Rising Stars” professional John Holzworth and Nicole Wooding from San Diego.

Congratulations to this year’s recipients to the Most Improved Dancers and Achievement Award!

The Most Improved Male Dancer was Stan Medina, Most Improved Female Dancer was Maria Rozum Diego, Most Improved Couple Dancer was David and Carol Bixler and the Achievement Award was Bill and Lona Dolan.

Fresno Chapter

Happy Holidays to all of our Smooth Dancers family! Christmas season is already upon us – where has time gone?!!

Fresno members welcomed Halloween in October with a Spooky dance for which we were to either wear costumes or dress in orange and black. It was a fun day! Dan Goss taught a very enjoyable Cha Cha combination, Linda Bennett played music and hostess Carla Hartunian provided excellent décor and yummy snacks.

Our November “Wine Stomp,” offered a “snappy” Tango lesson by Melanie Reno and even wine to go with the appropriate snacks provided by hostess Jennifer Morgan. Our Music Man, David Morgan, played the music for our dancing pleasure.

We will celebrate the Holidays on December 9 with our annual catered, semi-formal Christmas dinner-dance. A champagne receptions kicks the festivities off, followed by dinner, installation of our 2019 Officers and plenty of dancing. Shane and Myra Nielsen from our sister Visalia chapter will provide the evening’s entertainment.

Join us in January for some “Winter Dancing,” to be held on Sunday, January 20, 2019.

Dance Whispers
December 2018

December 16, 2018

Hello Fellow Smooth Dancers,

First things first, I want to take the opportunity to wish everyone a very happy Holiday Season. This time of year can pull us in all sorts of directions, sometimes diverting us from appreciating what is most important: family, friends, service and celebration of life...how ever you choose to celebrate it.

Even though we are near the end of this year, there is still plenty of dancing to do! You can go to Golden Gate's New Years Eve, Eve party on December 30th (p 11) and then do the New Year's Eve Ball at Bakersfield (p12) or San Diego (p13) on December 31st!

Then you will want to kick off the 2018 dancing year by attending the Los Angeles Chapter Coronation of Queen-elect Alice Mah Miller, on Saturday January 5th. The coronation registration flyer can be found on page 15.

We are definitely a group that knows how to enjoy life, particularly with dance. We had two Coronations; San Fernando Valley Chapter (pp1-2) and Palomar Chapter (pp3-4). Be sure to check out the SFV coronation, T42, of Deanna Stanton and Leanne Wong. Also read about Palomar's Coronation for Catherine Lombardi which was themed "Grecian Dreams".

Talking about enjoying life, LA chapter members have visited: Shanghai, Panama Canal, Bimini, Canary Islands, Spain, Portugal, Morocco, Munich and Austria (p5). Come to the LA coronation and get travel tips as well as a fun night of food and dance!

Chapter anniversary celebrations were enjoyed too. San Diego Chapter celebrated their 69th anniversary (p6). Visalia Chapter celebrated their 43rd anniversary as well (p9).

Be sure to mark your calendars for the March "Boards", "Once Upon A Time" scheduled on March 22-24 (p14).

I'm looking forward to seeing you on the dance floor and at the Los Angeles Coronation.

Never Stop Dancing,

Tom Wells
