

Tara Bedeau, Esquire (Esq.) is the founder of The Call of the Hummingbird: a life enhancement coaching service. It is a reflection of more than two decades of her work in psychological, emotional and spiritual healing with youth and adults. Among Ms. Bedeau's most instructional experiences has been as a Pediatric Chaplain intern at a prominent international hospital in NYC. There she provided psycho-spiritual and emotional support for more than 800 patients, families and staff.

Over the past 13+ years, Ms. Bedeau has been an Attorney, Executive, Educator, Trainer, Speaker and Consultant. Almost a decade ago, she founded The Precise Aim, an organizational consulting company addressing employment law, diversity & inclusion, employee engagement and change management needs arising in the workplace.

To combine her passions and expertise, Ms. Bedeau completed a degree focusing on Psychology & Religion & Interreligious Engagement (Diversity & Pluralism) from a Columbia University Seminary: Union Theological Seminary.

There, she focused on the application of systems change theories to religious, spiritual and faith based institutions, communities and initiatives, as well as the integration of these theories with holistic best practices to effectuate sustainable change in individuals, groups, workplaces and other societal systems. Pursuant to this, Ms. Bedeau was awarded a 2014 Henry R. Luce Fellowship to study religious diversity & inclusion in Indonesia.

Ms. Bedeau has been a featured keynote and panelist, broadcast commentator and media guest at national events and venues. She has authored several publications on various issues arising in her areas of expertise in industry, academic and media publications for national and international audiences. Also, she has received past honors from, and has been appointed on, various leadership committees in organizations. In addition to Columbia University, Ms. Bedeau is a graduate from Cornell Law School and the University of Pennsylvania.

Contact Information:

www.hummingbirdcall.com

yes@hummingbirdcall.com

510.730.3307