Happy 4th of July!

Hello Chapter B3,

Due to personal reasons, Margaret has stepped down as Chapter director of B3. Until a new Chapter Director has been appointed, I will be conducting the B3 gatherings.

As you may or may not know, when a chapter director steps down, the entire team is also dissolved, with the exception of Rider Ed., MEC, and the Treasurer. Margaret's existing team has agreed to stay on in the interim until a new chapter director has been appointed.

Anyone wishing to put forward considerations for any position on the Chapter Team, please see me at the gathering. I would like to have a list of names to give to the new C.D, whoever he or she may be. This way, the new C.D. will have time to get a chapter team together when they are appointed..

As always, if anyone has any question or concerns, please feel free to text. E-mail or call me anytime. (740-972-9889, or randyyoung@windstream.net)

Greetings B-3!

Have you ever been out riding... or riding from Point A to Point B someplace, then ran into traffic. Bad traffic! And it's hot – like, mid-90's hot. As you creep up, then up, then up a bit more, your hand begins to cramp on the clutch. The radiator fan comes on. You catch a view up ahead - and see the line stretches into the distance. Well crap.

So you're listening to the radio, and your trusty navigator on the back seat (i.e., your wife/spouse/co-pilot) gets on her trusty smart-phone to try and find an alternate route. Eureka! If you get off the interstate at "this" exit, and go down this road, etc. etc., you may be going through side streets & what not, but at least you're moving right! BAM! Another accident or block of some kind appears in your path... and it's STILL mid-90s. You cry out loud as the fan on the 'Wing comes on and sweat pours down your face inside your helmet.

Such is what happened to Amanda and me on our way home from the Buckeye Rally. You may recall we hadn't intended on going up to Mansfield, since we were obligated to attend the Origins Game Fair downtown. But a last minute schedule in our volunteer schedule saw us with Friday off, and we decided at the last minute to make a day of it. Mansfield's only about an hour & 45min away we reasoned – we can ride up, meet with friends, talk to some vendors, and make a day out of it. So that's what we did.

We arrived the rally – in about two & a half ours, having missed a turn. Good 'ole Siri on Amanda's smart phone corrected our course, then when we went to register, we discovered we didn't have our GWRRA membership cards on us, and we certainly don't have our numbers memorized. We'd emptied out our wallets & her purse to just carry cash & ID's with us to the Game Fair. Sigh. Many kudos's to Linda Copeland for recognizing us in the registration room & vouching for us. An enterprising lady (I didn't catch her name) just looked us up in the Gold Book. Nice thinking. :)

So we joined up with our B-3 friends, enjoyed some great hot dogs along with other fixings brought along.

Off to the vendors – with help and advice from Ben & Wendell, Robert & Bob, Pam, Mary, Sue plus Gary & Karen - we got a few things put on our bike. We wish we could have stayed longer.

We left the Rally around 3pm to head back to Columbus, making it to the Polaris area at about 4:15 – where we hit our first traffic snag. Long-story-short, we got home finally at 6:60pm. It seemed everywhere we turned – there was another accident. The radio told us of other accidents in our path, no matter which path we intended to take. We went down through Westerville, then parts of Gahanna and Whitehall, before finally making it back home.

The lesson learned in all this? Try and do everything you can to stay cool. Stay hydrated. Instead of staying out on the road and fighting traffic as we did, maybe just pull off and get inside where its air conditioned for a while. We did get some water and pulled over at Hoover Reservoir and rested for a time, but it wasn't long enough. When we geared back up and rode out, the radio was saying those accidents were still being worked, and were still blocking traffic. Anyway, if we had gotten inside and cooled off – stayed off the road a bit longer, maybe we'd have had less hassle.

Lessons learned eh? Ride safe... and cool B-3. :)

MEMBERSHIP ENHANCEMENT PROGRAM

PLEASE TAKE NOTE OF THE FOLLOWING OBITUARY

Our Chapter was saddened to learn of the death of one of our most valued members....."SOMEONE ELSE".

"SOMEONE's" passing creates a vacancy that will be difficult to fill....'ELSE' has been with us for many years and for every one of those years, "SOMEONE" did far more than a normal persons share of the work....Whenever there was a job to do, CD, ACD, RIDER'S ED, MEC' were always helping out at functions, one name was on everyone's list....(LET SOMEONE ELSE DO IT.) Whenever leadership was mentioned, this wonderful person was looked to for inspiration as well as results....(SOMEONE ELSE CAN DO IT.)

It was common knowledge that "SOMEONE ELSE" was among the most liberal givers to our Chapter...."SOMEONE ELSE" was a wonderful person, sometimes appearing super human....Were the truth be known, everyone expected too much of "SOMEONE ELSE"....Now "SOMEONE ELSE" is gone!!!! And we wonder what we are going to do....

SOMEONE ELSE" left a wonderful example to follow, but who is going to follow????? Who is going to do the things "SOMEONE ELSE" did?????

This was found on the last and only entry of a GWRRR Chapter site that is now gone forever.....

Let us "ALL" make sure that our Chapter stays strong.....Always keep building our Chapter membership and the membership for GWRRR....

Check your cards for your renewal dates, and always try to participate in the Chapter events.....Always keep a "Membership Kit" in your motorcycle, your car, and or your truck.....Invite everyone you meet that rides a motorcycle (They do not have to have a motorcycle) to join us at our Chapter Gatherings and or a Chapter event.....

PLEASE KEEP THE FOLLOWING IN YOUR THOUGHTS AND PRAYERS:

Bill Ford: Will be going thru two more rounds of Chemo before they can follow thru with the transplant.....

Evelyn DeLong: The family has had another loss of a loved one.....

Ken Daft: Going thru the pain and aftermath of the Shingles.....

Robert Vogel: His father has many health issues.....

Should I have missed anyone PLEASE let me know...

NEXT ADVENTURE

At the publishing of this in the July newsletter, Gary and I will be half way through our Canadian adventure, assuming there were no breakdowns thus far. So, since I am furiously prepping and probably packing too much, I will keep this article short.

There is an extremely large crop of orange cones and barrels this season. What isn't torn up is probably being repaved. Pavingtheway.com is still an excellent source of where the long term constructions projects are in Central Ohio, along with closed roads and time frames. For statewide current traffic conditions, try OHGO.com. It shows accidents, slow speed areas and traffic jams. The data seems to be very up-to-the-minute.

Roads that haven't been repaved are in fair condition. Roads in construction zones are out and out hazardous. If you are on 4 wheels, slow down. If you are on three wheels, slow down more. The jarring is teeth-loosening. If you are on two wheels, it may be better to find a different route. However, that being said, we were on I-75 in Michigan over the weekend and the condition was horrid. When we crossed the Ohio state line, the car was so quiet; we just looked at each other and said WOW!

We also just had the case of "Tires that wear out faster than you think". Most everyone knows we have a Wags trailer that was originally for our dog, but is now mostly my travel suitcase. Since the trailer is going with us to the Canadian Maritime islands, Gary took it to our friend Tom, and they greased and repacked the bearings, or something like that. As they looked at the tires, the "bars" were beginning to show through (my apologies if I said that wrong). Those tires would not have finished the whole trip, even though those tires didn't have more than 5,000 miles, probably much less. It pays to look. Hopefully, he has found the tires and someone to replace them. Apparently, little trailers don't have many places to get serviced.

Please be careful out there. Motorcycles are moving targets to some and they are in a hurry to get where here they are going.

Filling in for Gary Ballou

Summer is here and so is the heat.

Here are some things to consider as the temperature rises.

Your body has mechanisms in place to keep your temperature within a fairly small range. Two of the most important mechanisms are (1) the ability to move hot blood from the body core to the skin (known as shunting) and (2) the ability to sweat. It is the shunting of blood to the skin that makes your face look red after exercise, but it can also lower your blood pressure and make you feel dizzy. Sweating is the key to body cooling through evaporation, but it also increases the need for fluid replacement to prevent dehydration.

Keep in mind that you may not be thirsty until after you are already seriously dehydrated, so you must drink water before, during and after hot-weather exposure and exercise.

As dehydration increases, the common symptoms of heat-related illness begin to occur. These include headache, dizzy-ness, muscle weakness or cramps, nausea and vomiting. The symptoms may not occur in a certain order, so you could get seriously ill with very

To prevent heat illness on the motorcycle, keep the following points in mind:

Wear lightweight, light-colored, protective clothing. Mesh jackets and other breathable fabrics (like Kevlar) are a great summer alternative to leather.

Use hot-weather accessories like cool vests and neck coolers. If you don't have these things, spray some water on your clothing. You can even dampen your helmet liner with a little water before putting it on. Be sure to open the vents in your helmet to allow air to flow across your head.

Cover up! It may seem like you'd stay cooler in shorts and a tank top, but there are two things wrong with this thinking: first, this type of clothing offers no protection in case of a crash, and second, it has been proven that you actually stay cooler when the sun is not beating down directly on bare skin. Consider this: you stay cooler under a shade umbrella than you do in the direct sun, right? Well, think of your long sleeve shirt and long pants as shade umbrellas for your skin. And don't forget the sunscreen. Sunburn lessens your body's ability to cool itself by sweating.

Drink lots of water before, during and after the ride. You'll know you've had enough to drink if you urinate every two hours or less, and your urine is clear-colored (like weak lemonade). Drink every 15–20 minutes. Don't wait till you're thirsty. And by the way, coffee, tea and soda pop don't count as fluid-replacement drinks. They are diuretics and cause you to Urinate away more water than they put into your body.

If you have any chronic medical condition or take medicine frequently (for blood pressure, thyroid, depression, seizure or others), please consult with your healthcare provider about your possible increased risk for heat illness. Make sure the medical information sheets you carry on your bike are up-to-date.

Don't ride beyond your comfort. If you need to take a break, whether you're riding alone or in a big group, do it. Find a shady spot, an air-conditioned rest stop, restaurant, or other cool place. Get off the bike and rest. Eat or drink something cold (here's where ice cream comes into play!). Taking your shoes off for a few minutes not only allows your feet to cool, but it helps the body release heat.

A special thanks to current REGION F EDUCATOR, Mike Burke for this great guide.

A ride article by Bill and Esther Ford

On May 27th, Margaret led a nice ride, the scenery was beautiful, sky was clear blue and with temperatures in the mid 80's, it was a perfect day.

The park has been updated since our last visit. There is a wonderful picnic shelter with grill, a new put-put course, and tennis court and 1 1/2 basketball courts have been refreshed. We enjoyed our brown bag lunches in the shelter, and talked with other visitors.

On our return route we rode though Hocking Hills to get ice cream in Tritons at the Creamery, it was a B-3 outing so we had to enjoy some wonderful Ice Cream. Then we journeyed on home.

Every day out on our Wings is a great day, especially if the weather is perfect and ends with Ice Cream.

Looking forward anxiously to the next ride.

Ohio Veterans Memorial Park
Clinton, Ohio
June 10, 2017

June 10th was a beautiful, warm day with just a few clouds in the blue sky for the ride to the Veterans Memorial Park up in the northeast town of Clinton, Ohio. There were 7 of us from B-3 once Bill and Esther arrived after his visit to The James for a couple of shots. We finally got on the road about 9:40 AM. The route was planned by Bill to go by way of the back roads starting with following Rte. 204 almost to its end then we turned north on Rte. 668. Nice road, but surprise it ended at US 40. Now what?

Well we went left for a while, then right for a few miles, and then left and right on some newly resurfaced roads or some old bumpy roads with lots of pot holes. Several of the roads had a lot of nice curves and lots of hills. All of us had GPS units on and sometimes they gave conflicting directions. Bill kept pushing NE until he got back on to the track he had planned. Finally about 12:30 PM we arrived in Warsaw where we stopped at a local diner named Roberta's Diner. The food was great; the server was attentive and got all our orders correct. Once we had rested, filled our bellies and emptied another we were back on the road. At one point we were passed by an impatient driver who showed us his intelligence quotient of 1! We traveled for about another hour and took another rest stop about 20 minutes away from our objective. Once back on our bikes we found our way to the extremely well designed and constructed Ohio Veterans Memorial dedicated to all service members who gave their lives in the military service of this country during all the wars and conflicts since the Civil War. We spent about 45 minutes walking and taking photos then remounted our reliable steeds and got back on the road towards home with a couple of stops along the way. One stop was for fuel in three of the bikes and a stop for Ice Cream at the Velvet plant in Utica. Back on the bikes we returned to Rte. 62 west then to Rte. 661 south, but Bill and Esther continued on Rte. 62 to Johnstown. Once in Grandville we turned south on Rte. 37 at the I-70 west ramp where Wendell and Sue continued towards their home in Millersport. Ben, Mary and I headed west towards our homes in Grove City. I arrived home about 8:40 PM after stopping at the Turkey Hill at Rte. 62 and I-270 for fuel. By the time I pulled into the garage I had traveled 309 miles in a little less than 12 hours. See pictures on next page.
