

Furness Group Riding for the Disabled
Investment Policy: January 2018.

Furness Group Riding for the Disabled is an unincorporated charity who does not hold high levels of reserves, will not accept any investment that is “risky” and therefore holds its reserves in the form of a bank or building society easy access savings account. The Trustees aim for the highest interest rate within those parameters.