Position:	Board Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA)
Application Deadline:	Posted Until Filled
Starting Date:	Immediately
Schedule:	Full-Time

Job Description:

---

The PrideStar Center for Applied Learning, LLC. (PCAL) has an exciting opportunity for a Licensed/Board Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) to be an integral part of a growing company and gain exceptional experience working in the field of ABA providing services for children diagnosed with Autism. We are seeking a talented, energetic, professional BCBA to join our team in Lowell, Massachusetts.

PCAL offers clients a comprehensive continuum of ABA services that includes direct teaching, structured play and leisure skills, parent/caregiver training and consultation to other service providers. PCAL utilizes a center-based model of intervention to complement the client's educational program. Our clients range in grades K-12 with diagnoses across the Autism Spectrum.

PCAL is seeking a highly trained, experienced and creative professional devoted to providing the highest quality ABA services. The position offers the successful candidate an opportunity to work in a supervisory role, conduct assessments and perform clinical administrative duties. In addition to clinical responsibilities, our Clinical Director will work closely with the Executive Director and have the opportunity to develop or expand their existing skillset in the areas of human resources (hiring, evaluations, disciplinary actions, feedback), strategic planning and business development, marketing, presentations, and community outreach. PCAL is committed to providing an extremely supportive working environment that cultivates collaboration between clinical and administrative staff, encourages personal and professional growth within the organization and maintains manageable caseloads that align with BACB standards.
