Phoenix's estimated birth date is 1/15/06. He is a loving, 40 pound, black Australian Shepherd and (possible) lab mix. Before being rescued, he was a mangy looking mutt that lived in the work yard at an industrial construction company.

Phoenix has lived at the shelter for several years and sure would love to finally have his own, permanent family. He is very smart and loves to learn new things. Phoenix loves to play with squeaky toys and plastic water bottles. He is a snuggle bug and just wants to be around people as much as possible.

Won't you make his life complete by fulfilling his desire for a real home?
