Zoey was left tied to a tree at our facility in April. She is a medium sized Pit Bull mix that is 38 pounds. She is brindle with some white and her estimated birth date is 1/15/10.

She is energetic and would do best in a home as an only dog where she can get the majority of the attention. She may do well with other dogs, depending on their personalities.

We believe she may have been tied to a tree for most of her life, since she runs back and forth in a line in the yard when let out of her kennel. With some attention and training, she will be a great, loyal pet.

She gets along extremely well with one of our younger volunteers (age 10) and loves playing with him. She is house trained, up to date on all shots, heartworm negative and spayed.
