

Joy

Daddy long legs and flapping moths
Fluffy pink grass in the breeze
Sun shining down between the clouds
Alighting upon the trees
Sparkling water in foamy waves
Blue-green and salty on lips
Summer sun in dazzling rays
Rosy on long grassy tips
Baby blond hair and dimpled smile...

My heart leaps for joy - You are my sword and my shield
Mundubbera sunset paints the sky
And softly tints the hills
Bauhimia tree in pure white blooms
Stands stark 'gainst the old windmills.
Mundubbera sunset paints my heart
And softly tints my day
The holy Lord - a pure white bloom -
Stands stark to lead my way.
