

Section 10 - Resignations

All resignations must be in writing addressed to the Corresponding Secretary. The vacancy will be filled according to Section 8 above.

Section 11 - Dissolution procedure

To ensure the fair handling of club funds in case of dissolution of club membership, the funds of this club shall be awarded to deserving students in the membership area of this club to be used for the study of animal husbandry or for study to become a veterinarian.

The awarding of funds will be left to the discretion of a court-appointed board of five (5) qualified men or women, who shall make a complete study of applicants' character, interest, background and scholastic abilities before making their decision.

ARTICLE V - Duties of Officers and Directors

Section 1 - Duties of the President

The President shall preside at all meetings and appoint all committees necessary to the proper functioning of the club.

Section 2 - Duties of the Vice President

The Vice President shall perform duties of the President in his absence.

Section 3 - Duties of the Recording Secretary

The Recording Secretary shall maintain a complete record of all meetings of the club and its Board of Directors and of all matters for which a record shall be ordered by the club. At every general membership or Board meeting, the Recording Secretary shall read the previous meetings' minutes or, if unable to attend the meeting, shall provide a copy of said minutes to another member who can read them in his place.

Section 4 - Duties of the Corresponding Secretary

The Corresponding Secretary shall send and receive the club's correspondence, notify all Officers and members of all meetings and maintain a membership roll of all members with their addresses, telephone numbers and other pertinent information. He shall make copies of this Constitution and Bylaws available to all Officers, Directors and members upon request.

Section 5 - Duties of the Treasurer
