PURE MICHIGAN HARD ROCK

Band: Becoming Human
 Hometown: Gaylord, MI
 Genre: Hard Rock
 Album: Media Mud EP
 Label: Independent
 Release Date: May 2016

Track list:

1. Media Mud
2. Melancholy
3. Buckle My Shoe
4. There's More Where That Came From
5. Blood Money

Hailing from Gaylord, MI Becoming Human (aka BHN) was formed in 2011 by frontman Frankie James Schweizer (Schweizer) and guitar player Joel "Joey Joels" Webber (Webber). After 5 years of undergoing multiple lineup changes under the 1-2 toxic-twins-esk punch of Schweizer and Webber, BHN released their musical debut album, Meteorites EP. A southern-soul hard rock with flairs of quick licks and lyrics with the hit track "Backwoods" which set the band apart from other groups in their class and projected them into a period of growth and knowledge.

With BHN now officially a 4 piece and thriving, the band has witnessed explosive growth in 2016. The new Media Mud EP released May 2016 has gone straight up since its release. Now trending a standard for other hard rock-metal bands, BHN has a knack for keeping raw talent and performance as their edge opposed to other's over produced material and often over digitalized music. The name of the band is becoming ever more understandable and obvious, even snagging the term "Nation" coined by the fans themselves as a message for the rest of the Music World.

I watched BHN for the first time at Metal Revolution 5 in Hubbard Lake back in September. Their set was flawless and though their style isn't exactly what I normally listen too, a melody got stick in my head a I got hooked in. So naturally I had to look into BHN and find out more. 15. Zero Net Force - 01:08

Boycott The Baptist is a "Nun-Core" 2-piece from Leeds/Aberdeen, UK who mix crust, punk and grind with dirty riffs. For fans vocals in crust punk are often shrieked or shouted, and may be shared between two or more vocalists. The lyrical content bleak and nihilistic, yet politically engaged. Pig Destroyer/Anal Cunt/Black Flag/All Pigs Must Die/Rash Decision/Police Bastard/Eyehategod and more.

Boycott The Baptist new full-length Bash The Bishop is by far their best work to date.

Band: On Broken Wings
Album Title: Disintegrator
Genre: Metalcore
Label: Artery Recordings
Release Date: August 19th, 2016
Origin: Boston, MA

Members:
Jonathan - Vocals
Mike - Guitar/Programming

Rob - Bass

Track list:

1. The Procession - 00:46
2. Quicksand Breaths - 02:56
3. The Swamp - 00:32
4. Dragging Weight - 02:28
5. Rubik's Cube Obsession - 02:25

9. Dirt Nap - 03:14
10. The Box - 01:52
11. Ego Ideal - 03:00

It seems 2016 is the year of concept albums. Among the many great concept albums released this year so far comes a crushing groovy new album from Boston, MA based mosh-core pioneers On Broken Wings. The new album Disintegrator was released August 19th, 2016 via Artery Recordings. The album was produced by guitarist Mike McMillen and mastered by Nick Zampello (The Red Chord, ISIS).

It's been nearly a decade since their last release Going Down EP (2007). Now they're back better than ever with their third full-length Disintegrator. The album starts off with sounds of a crying baby and then right off the bat it's mosh time. Vocals range from abrasive screams to unique almost hypnotic cleans. No shortage of breakdowns and no astounding lead work, but the riffs are aggressive and catchy.

Mike McMillen had this to say about the lyrical theme of Disintegrator, "It's about the eroding of everything around us. It's about us eroding too. Maybe we're fading away or maybe we're turning into something else? There's this intention as the album moves along that things go from organic to artificial and then die. You'll hear it in some of the interludes especially."

soundcloud.com/armadaorlando
www.facebook.com/hailarmada/

Armada is an Orlando, FL based metalcore group featuring a seasoned, sort of of a supergroup if you will, of professional musicians that have earned their successes working and clawing their way through the music industry. This has enabled them to build and perfect a new sound of Metalcore that is very distinctive both musically and lyrically then almost anything out in that genre today.

“We are about rebellion, pushing back, taking chances, going against the grain and pulling for the underdog with positive messages and standing up against corporate greed, drug addiction, overcoming anxiety, putting problems in the past and rebuilding newer better futures all based on real life encounters we have experienced ourselves.”

Armada's self-released EP Of An Ocean is vocally diverse with a well blended mixture of screams, growls, chants and clean melodic signing. After listening a few times I'm sort of reminded of Gizmachi in some spots on the EP.

Songwriting is solid with riffs that hook you in right from the start. No technical guitar playing but at times heavy and catchy with a little splash of djent flavoring. Definitely a band worth checking out for fans of Atreyu and Memphis May Fire.

INTO THE ABYSS: ROMANIA

Dive deep into the unknown of metal throughout the world. Originally started as a weekly random pick of weird metal and notable metal bands. Because of a somewhat busy personal schedule I have decided to no longer do it weekly as it is too time consuming seeking out killer new unknown bands. So now the feature will be a quarterly feature in this ezine. This issue we venture to Romania - Dave

Band: Akral Necrosis
 Album: Underlight
 Genre: Black Thrash Metal
 Label: Loud Rage Music
 Origin: Bucharest, Romania

AKRAL NECROSIS to release new opus "Underlight" on the 14th of October.

"Underlight" track list:

1. Separator
2. King in Yellow
3. Saturnian Gallows
4. Exhortatio ad Bellum
5. Purge
6. Sin Gauntlet
7. Hounds of Plague
8. Blackthrone
9. Underlight

The Black Thrash Metal veteran group from Bucharest, Romania, AKRAL NECROSIS are set to release a new album this Autumn. "Underlight" comes out on the 14th of October via Loud Rage

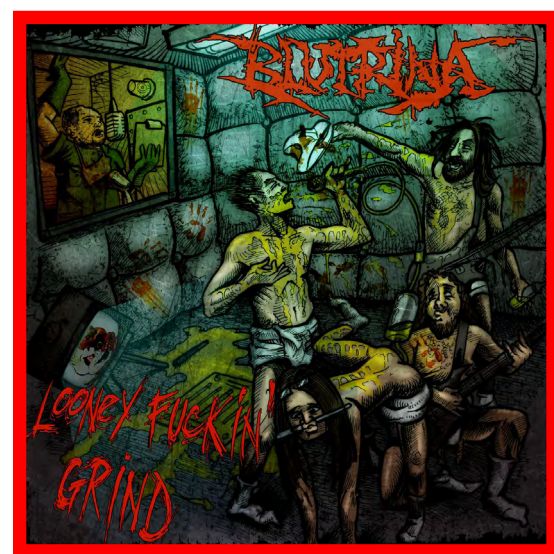

Music on CD and digital.

"Underlight" contains nine tracks that can only be described as darker and more far reaching than all past releases of Akral Necrosis. Unlike "Pandemic Dominion", the new album no longer presents a narrative concept, but a thematic one, with all songs being related to death.

The new full length has been recorded at Studio 148 by Marius Costache, who also handled the mix and master.

The release of "Underlight" marks a new collaboration between the band and Costin Chioreanu from Twilight-13Media. The artist managed to perfectly capture the essence of the new album by creating the perfect artwork for it.

Looney Fuckin' Grind, Blutrină's debut album, was recorded, mixed and mastered in 2015 at Consonance Studios, Timisoara, Romania by Edmond Karban (aka Hupogrammos) and Cristian Popescu (aka Sol Faur), both members of well-known bands Dordeduh and Sunset in the 12th House. The album's beautifully disgusting cover artwork was done by Sebastian Stancu, also know from his work as vocalist and founding members for Spiritual Ravishment.

Keeping a loose Death Metal Grind mindset, Looney Fuckin' Grind is heavily inspired by Looney Tunes, noticeably taunting at different melodies from the cartoon series, as well as adapting scenes from other cartoons, such as Cow and Chicken and Family Guy.

The album was released 23rd of September through Loud Rrage Music and now available here: loudragemusic.bandcamp.com/album/blutrina-looney-fuckin-grind

Looney Fuckin' Grind also features Andreas "Blix" Jacobsen gurgling on Roadrunner Roadkill as well as some secret appearances by other notable guest musicians.

Band: False Reality
Album: End of Eternity
Genre: Melodic Death Metal
Label: Loud Rage Music
Origin: Romania

Tracklist:
1. Bewitched
2. The Silence Within
3. Rapture and Pain
4. Rih al Khamsin
5. Requiem into Darkness
6. End of Eternity
7. Dear Friend

Romanian Melodic Death Metal combo False Reality will release their first LP, End of Eternity, via Loud Rage Music, on the 26th of October. The album is a stepping stone for the band's long and troubled existence, the only other material released so far being the EP Tales of Eternity, in 2002. This absence of materials from a band formed in 1999 is mainly due to the hiatus that the band was in since 2003 until 2011.

Recorded, produced and mastered by Robert Cotoros (Hteththemeth, The Bipolar Disorder Project), the album features 7 long tracks and can be pre-ordered on the Bandcamp page of the Transylvanian label Loud Rage Music: <https://loudragemusic.bandcamp.com/album/false-reality-end-of-eternity>. The artwork is signed by Claudia Negrilă, a talented young artist from Braşov, Romania, also the home city of the band members.

You can expect a healthy dose of Old-School Melodic Death Metal, colored by influences that range from Progressive and Doom metal all the way to Black Metal.

How to Start a Record Label?

By Raja Priya

The music industry is an open house for talents. Digital distribution is a boon for independent record labels. Creating your own record label is not difficult with access to music and a loyal fan base. If you are passionate about music, you can start your own record label with planning and hard work.

You should have clear goals about what you want to accomplish with your record label. Your recording company may want to make a lot of money or cater to a specific audience. You should choose your music accordingly. Once you have established business goals, you should create a business plan. This business plan will have all the steps necessary to create your own record. Then you should set off to create a legal business entity. To become a registered business, you should learn the rules and regulations in your city. You can start a record label all on your own or partner with your friends. If you plan to start a partnership company, you should register your partnership first.

After completing the legal formalities of a record label, you should focus on finding great music. Music composers who can't find an easy way to record their music now create record labels. You can also find great music bands that are just waiting for the spotlight. The success of your music label depends on the quality of music you wish to sell.

Setting your budget is crucial to earn profits with your record business. You should establish a deal with the musicians to record music. In most of the cases, the record label should bear the recording costs. If the artists need advance, you should plan your budget so that you will have enough money to cover promotional expenses. Profits can be shared with your artist in any way according to your business goals. You can sign the artists for several albums or just for a single album depending on your prediction about the future of the musicians.

Digital distribution is simpler than physical distribution. You can use aggregating music service to directly put your music on various websites. It is best to deal with distributors who can actively participate in promoting your music label. You can promote your music on your own if you have enough resources. Otherwise, you can hire PR teams to promote the music label. You should be prepared to understand and update your business according to the music industry demands. With every release, your business should evolve and improve.
