SALAD DAYS

Luxury Beach Hut

Dunster Beach Somerset

Salad Days offers luxurious accommodation at Dunster Beach. Designed for couples only, this self-catering, boutique beach hut is one of England's best kept secrets, bordering Exmoor National Park and the Somerset coast, it offers a unique luxury in a beach hut environment. Relax and unwind while overlooking the tranquil nature reserve just metres from the beach or soak up the atmosphere of medieval Dunster with its charming Yarn Market and stunning Castle.

Fully refurbished in 2015/16 the accommodation offers; car parking directly outside, underfloor heating, en-suite with shower, king size bed, fully equipped kitchen with dishwasher, cooker, fridge etc. lounge with dining area, front and back fenced gardens with seating, sun loungers & bike racks. We provide all linen, towels and a welcome basket.

'Like all treasures, it's natural to want to keep them to yourself, but it's impossible not to want to tell all about this little piece of heaven that Brett and Susan have created'

At Salad Days we are dog friendly and we will accommodate your dog in a way befitting your best friend. Dunster Beach and Exmoor is the ideal place to holiday with your dog, many pubs and restaurants accommodate dogs and it is of course a fantastic area to go for those long and short walks.

Dunster beach is a collection of around 250 beach huts sandwiched between the Bristol Channel on one side with views of the Welsh coast and The Hawn nature reserve (which Salad Days Dunster overlooks) on the other, with views of Exmoor National Park and Dunster Castle beyond. A walk along the beach brings you to the traditional seaside town of Minehead at one end and Blue Anchor Bay at the other.
