ABOUT THE ARTISTS

Carlo Audi has performed numerous solo and chamber concerts in the United States, Europe and South America. In addition, he has been a member of several orchestras in Brazil and in the United States. Audi holds cello performance degrees from Florida State University (DMA), University of South Carolina (MM), and Faculdade Mozarteum de Sao Paulo (BM). Carlos Audi is currently on the music faculty of Hillsborough Community College and Hillsborough County Public Schools, as well as serving as an adjunct cello teacher for Florida College. He has also served as an adjudicator for several competitions for the Florida Orchestra Association.

Linnea Norsworthy earned a BA from the University of South Florida and MM in piano performance from the Eastman School of Music. She has taught piano on the faculties at the University of South Florida, the University of New Hampshire, Muhlenberg College, and Mesa Community College. Throughout her career, Ms. Norsworthy has been active as a solo performer and a chamber musician. Currently, she maintains a private piano studio, serves as organist and pianist for St. Andrew Presbyterian Church, and is an active accompanist around the Tampa Bay area, including frequently for student recitals at Florida College.
