TRANSLATIONS

- Auf geht der Tag
*Welcome the day with spirit so bright! Darkness is flying and now gone!
Over the meadows gliding high is the rising sun,
"Up now and greet the morning!" birds in chorus seem to say!
Waken to the morning sunlight! Waken to the morning sunlight!*
- Am schönsten Sommerabend war's
*I wander'd on lovely summer's eve, into a shady vale.
How bright the fields in sunlight stood, How blue the lake and green the forest!
The south wind singing sweet fragrance across the land!
A shepherd girl with ribbons gay, and braids of golden hair
Sat knitting in the sunset, a flock of sheep her tender care.
She sits so still, by whisp'ring rill a fair picture
What does she dream, the shepherd girl, in summer twilight cool?
Alone she sits in the evening sun, across the field she casts a longing gaze;
A horn replies! Afar it is, and in echo fades*
- Mit einer Wasserlilie
*See, my love, what I am bringing: Lilies white with dew drops.
On the quiet stream they were gently swaying sweet and pure as children
But these bolssoms which you hold so shyly in your gaze so fair abiding...
They are not what they seem! Their stream is a home for danger yet...
As water sprites, they play above the deep and feign sleeping.*
