

Marksmanship Simulation Training (MST)

Short Description: Handgun introduction, responsibility, and safety training.

More Details: This is a three-hour course for safe handgun shooting that is conducted in the classroom only using laser shot indicating simulating pistols to provide the basic knowledge, skills, and attitude necessary to learn pistol marksmanship using a virtual training system. Students are taught safe gun handling and simulator pistol knowledge; fundamentals of pistol marksmanship; and applying the fundamentals of pistol shooting with a laser shot indicating simulator pistol. These classes are designed for those that have handled handguns very little or not at all and want to become more comfortable around them at home or in your environment. This class is for those that have questions they were curious about and where afraid to ask and those that are anxious around handguns and would like to become more comfortable. Please bring your questions if you want to know something specific about any of the subjects covered in this class. We are eager to help start taking the mystery and anxiety out of handguns for you. This class does NOT include any live fire activities. All activities are held in a classroom setting.
