PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Early on as I was driving to one of my first RRWF luncheons, I realized that I couldn't wait to get there. I couldn't wait to relax in the company of such fine, conscientious, like minded women. I believe promoting and educating ourselves in conservative principles and values is vital in 2019.

Although I have much to learn, as your new president I pledge to do my best to serve you. Most importantly I know where " my help comes from ".

President RRWF,
Roberta Allotta

Jolin Crofts Speaker Bio

Jolin was born in Iran in the 60s. After her arranged marriage at age 19 with a prominent family from Dubai (UAE) she moved to Pittsburgh, PA with her husband. She has one son from that marriage. She earned her undergraduate degree in Computer Science and her Masters degree in Telecommunications from the University of Pittsburgh.

Jolin has done extensive research on the invisible army of a very powerful and unlimited funded International mob ruling the US government and every organization in the US from deep within. It is known as the Deep State. She will share her knowledge with you at our January luncheon/meeting

Christmas Charity

Our 2018 Christmas Charity was a resounding success! Members donated more than 200 gifts to the annual Riverside Park & Recreation children's "Breakfast with Santa."

Approximately 400 children and their families enjoyed a free pancake breakfast at Villegas Community Center on December 15.

After breakfast everybody gathered outside to welcome Santa, who was presumed to arrive in the big red fire truck that pulled up to the entrance. Alas, no Santa appeared! Instead, he made a surprise arrival a few minutes later in a Riverside Police helicopter with siren and flashing lights, to cheers of delight from the little ones.

"Santa" was a young, slender Highway Patrol officer who in his teens volunteered at this event with his mother and father. Children didn't notice that the suit was way too big for its occupant, who struggled to keep his hat and beard in place as helicopter blades nearly blew them off!

Back inside, children were given numbered wristbands that matched similarly-numbered age-and-gender appropriate presents. They were called to Santa's chair by number and the elves were able to hand Santa the perfect present for each child.

This was an all-volunteer function. Nobody was paid to work, not even the DJ, videographer or photographer. Food was donated by sponsors and prepared on premises by a committee of residents, off-duty police officers and proud military veterans (including a Korean-era vet).

RRWF was recognized as a sponsor in flyers, display banners and by public announcement. Organizers were thankful that RRWF donated half of all the gifts.
