April 28, 2018

Join us at our first Sherwoodstock and take part in the “Breeders’ Crystal Ball Futurity”™

The earlier you enter the lower the entry fee!
They don’t even have to be born yet.

Winner take all!

The Breeders’ Crystal Ball Futurity Challenge:

- Open to all llamas born between 10/28/16 and 11/28/17.
- Fees based on age and show status of llama at time of entry (never shown v. previously shown). Llamas may be shown without penalty after entry in the futurity has been received.

Premise: Can you see the future? Entering a young, unproven, or even an unborn llama shows confidence in your program. The price goes up as the llama matures or makes its mark in the show ring. It’s a gamble. Winner take all.

- Entry fees are non-refundable (whether the llama is shown or not).
- If your llama is sold prior to the show, the entry transfers to the new owner.
- Entries will remain open up to the show. No substitutions.
- Jackpot and trophy awarded to the overall Challenge Winner.
 - Ribbons will be awarded to the top placing futurity llamas in each division. (male and female, suri, silky (single coat) and traditional (double coat)
- The winner will be selected by the halter judge in a “Best of Show” format.
- Your entry will be based on your postmark date. Entries received by e-mail will have five days for entry fees to be received for the entry date to remain valid.
- Entry fees do not include entry into the ILR llama show. You will have to enter your llama in the show separately

Entry fees apply to the age of the llama and its show status at date of entry not date of show.
